Any faculty member who still has programs and/or data files on the HP-3000 is encouraged to contact the Computer Center as soon as possible in order to schedule the transfer of these files to the PRIME system. The HP-3000 is heavily loaded with administrative files and the availability of academic files is subject to the downtime schedule of administrative offices.

Library Books

All books checked out from the Captain John Smith Library fall semester will be due December 16th. This is necessary so the library staff can clear overdues and have records in order for the end of the semester. Patrons having no overdue materials may renew books needed during the holidays beginning December 12th.

for Public Services

Reserve Materials in the Library
