ANNOUNCEMENTS

Name Change Effective May 1, 1990, Building and Grounds will be renamed "Physical Plant".

--Submitted by Gerald Smith, Director

Effective July 1, 1990, The Office of Public Relations will be renamed "College Relations".

--Submitted by Paul Holcomb, VPJA

Reminder It is not too late to be listed in the 1990-91 edition of the CNC media source book and speaker's bureau. This information guide puts the media and local organizations in touch with those who are experts on specific subjects and provides favorable publicity for the College as well as faculty and administrators. If you wish to be included, please send your name, title, phone number, and a list of three or four of your areas of expertise to Peggy Hughes, Office of Public Relations. For more information, please call 4-7039.

Have some information you'd like to share with the CNC community? Please submit your information in memo form to the Office of Public Relations before noon on Wednesday. Need information, call 594-7039.

Dance
Concert

Students of the Dance 395A class will present the Second Annual Dance Concert on Sunday April 29, 1990 at 8:00 p.m. in the John W. Gaines Theater. The presentation will be open to the public, and the admission will be free. There will also be a group of guest artists Music in Motion also dancing.

Harold
Chapman

A milestone in the history of local music will be reached the week of April 23 with the exhibit of memorabilia of Peninsula composer, Harold Chapman (d. 1974) at the Charles Taylor Arts Center next to the Hampton Public Library. This is timed with a reception on April 23 and the naming of the last unnamed gallery of the Center for Harold Chapman.

Chapman's complete works in their original form are preserved in the CNC library, and the life of Chapman is the subject of the recent music history thesis of CNC student Ellen Baize. Certain materials in our library and others gathered by Mrs. Baize will be displayed.

Two of Chapman's songs, which with all his music should regain attention, will be sung by Jeannette Wall at her senior recital on April 29, at 3:00 p.m. in the Gaines Theater.

--Submitted by Clyde Brockett, Jr.
Falk Professor of Music

Faculty
Meeting

There will be a faculty meeting in Room A105, on Friday, April 27 at 3:00 p.m. Please plan to attend. We must approve our graduates and hold some elections.

--Submitted by Bob Fellowes

Alpha Chi
Elections

We would appreciate the help of all faculty in making known the meeting for electing officers of Alpha Chi National Honor Society for the 1990-1991 academic year. All members of the Virginia Zeta Chapter are eligible to vote at the meeting on Tuesday, April 24, at 12:15 p.m. in McMurran 203.

Submitted by Deborah Fontaine, Jay Paul,
Mindy Spigel (Faculty Sponsors)

Annual Fund Campaign

The Faculty/Staff Annual Fund Campaign will begin this week with a personal solicitation effort. Annual fund dollars are used for several things including: (1) scholarships, (2) library resources, (3) faculty development, and (4) equipment. These funds are also used to publish CNC News that is distributed to alumni and friends of the College.

When approached, I hope you will consider a gift to the Annual Fund for two reasons: (1) the programs that benefit from the Annual Fund, and (2) that prospects off campus are very interested in the participation of faculty and staff.

Questions about the Annual Fund can be addressed to Liz Bryant, Director of Alumni Relations, 4-7712, or Paul Holcomb, VPIA, at 4-7038.

FACULTY, STAFF, STUDENT NEWS

Faculty
News

To gain insight and learn about the research, systems, and methods of the world's music, the CNC course he teaches, Clyde Brockett will attend the week-long seminar, Ethnomusicology, and receive the certificate of completion this summer at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. M.I.T. has awarded him a tuition scholarship; a CNC Faculty Development Grant will finance the balance of his tuition and living expenses.

The Department of Modern and Classical Languages and Literatures hosted the annual meeting of the Foreign Language Association of Virginia on campus April 6-7. Approximately 300 high school and college teachers were in attendance.

Susan St. Onge is the president-elect of this organization. Doris Reppen is a member of the Board of Directors.

During the conference Dick Guthrie served as a member of the panel discussion "Proficiency versus Grammar-Driven Programs," and organized and introduced the panel discussion "Was unterrichten wir? Communication between High School and College German Programs." Elisabeth Jones organized and introduced the panel discussions "Latin Programs: Bridging the Gap--Improving Articulation between High School and College."
