Announcement:

Request for Proposals

The Virginia Department of Education is seeking proposals from college and university faculty to conduct research to include, but not be limited to:

- investigation of the effects of various K-12 educational programs (e.g., parental involvement, grouping practices, use of technology, assessment, and equity) on student achievement,
- identification of strategies for communicating the results of educational research to educators in the field or to enhance communication between and among professionals and parents, and/or
- identification of ways in which the efficiency of educational programs can be increased.

Faculty at Virginia's four-year, state-supported universities and colleges are eligible to submit proposals. Collaboration with K-12 public educators is encouraged. The average award for projects is expected not to exceed $30,000.

RFP Issue Date: October 20, 1993

Notice of Letter of Intent to Submit: November 15, 1993

Proposal Due Date: January 5, 1994

Period of Grant Award: February 1, 1994 through June 30, 1995

For more information or a copy of the Request for Proposals, please contact the Dean's office of your college or phone Dr. John McLaughlin (804-225-2089) or Dr. Kevin Hughes (804-225-2916) at the Virginia Department of Education.

FACULTY ACTIVITIES --

- * On September 30 and October 1, 1993, the following persons represented Christopher Newport University at the Virginia Conference on World Trade meeting in Virginia Beach:
Professor Ed Boyd, Management and Marketing, COBE
Professor Marshall Booker, Economics and Finance, COBE
Professor Lisa Spiller, Management and Marketing, COBE
Dean Linda McCallister, COBE
Director Elizabeth Hansen, International Studies

Professor Spiller was the moderator for the session on NAFTA. Conference members participated in a questionnaire survey review to assist Professors Spiller and Booker in their continuing comparative research on NAFTA.

- * On October 7-9, 1993, Dr. Lisa Spiller, Management and Marketing, made a presentation to the American Society for Competitiveness in Washington, DC. The session was entitled "Regional Trade Alliances and Competitive Advantage" and the title of the presentation was "Developing Regional Linkages Through the North American Free Trade Agreement: An Empirical Study on the Interrelated Roles of Business, Government and Academia" by Dr. Lisa D. Spiller, Dr. H. Marshall Booker, and Dr. Elizabeth de G. R. Hansen, all of Christopher Newport University.

The above presentation was also published under the same title in the Journal of Competitiveness, Vol. 1, 1993, Ch. 11, October 1993, pp. 129-142.

The article referenced above has also been published in (ACR) Advances in Competitiveness Research, "Developing Regional Linkages Through the North American Free Trade Agreement: An Empirical Study on the Interrelated Roles of Business, Government, and Academia," Vol. 1, No. 1, 1993, pp. 78-92.

- * On October 8-10, 1993, Dr. Marshall Booker, Economics and Finance, COBE, attended the Thirty-Sixth International Atlantic Economic Conference where he presented a paper in the Teaching of Economics II session entitled: "Economics in the Electronic Classroom: An Experiment in Introducing the Hands-On Use of the Computer in Principles of Economics Classes." In addition, he was a discussant of several paper presentations in the session entitled Economic Systems and Regional/Country Studies.
- * On October 10-13, 1993, Dr. Marshall Booker was a participant in the 47th Annual AUBER (Association for University Business and Economic Research) Conference hosted by the University of South Alabama in Mobile, Alabama.
- * On October 9, Professor Carl Colonna presented and defended a paper entitled "The Economic Effect of Electronically Produced Music on the Performing Musician and Music Consumption" at the Thirty-Sixth meeting of the Atlantic Economic Society in Philadelphia, Pa. This paper was co-authored with Professors Patricia M. Kearns and John E. Anderson.

- * Professors Anderson and Colonna were asked to submit their written comments on Framework for the Future for the City of Newport News Council Public Hearing held September 28, 1993.
- * Joe Weber's article about Mackinac Island, Michigan, entitled "A Trip to a Bygone Era," appeared in the October 10 issue of the Daily Press.

PERSONNEL NOTE -- Original Appointment: Joy Cooke, office services specialist, Personnel/Payroll Office.

REQUEST FOR SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION --

Your assistance is requested by the Financial Aid Office in the updating of the literature that provides information about scholarships and grants that are available at CNU. The current publication, the CNU 1993-94 Financial Aid Guide was recently distributed to each department chairperson and deans. Copies are also available in the Financial Aid Office.

It is important that all scholarships and grants available at CNU be included in this publication, regardless of the department or office administering the program. It would be appreciated if you would advise the Financial Aid Office of any scholarship or grant that is being administered at CNU and is not listed in the above mentioned publication. Any additions you provide will be included in the 1994-95 guide and must be received by the Financial Aid Office by November 5, 1993. Please call Sid Dugas, 4-7227 or Susan Glaude, 4-7170 if you have any questions or want to provide any information.

Your assistance will be appreciated.

CNU BASKETBALL IS COMING SOON!!!

Just a reminder...if you haven't already gotten your CNU I.D. card, you'll want to be sure and get one before basketball season gets here. You and your family will be admitted free of charge when you present your CNU I.D. (excluding post-season play).

Both teams are looking forward to exciting and challenging seasons. The men's team begins their home season on November 19 against Mary Washington College at 7:30 p.m. The women's team plays their first home game December 11 against Marymount at 2:00 p.m.

PENINSULA BUSINESS BREAKFAST --

The next Peninsula Business Breakfast of the 1993-94 series will be held on Tuesday, November 9, 1993, from 7:30 a.m. to 9:00 a.m. in the Anderson Auditorium.

The topic will be "Water: Is It a Renewable Resource?" David L. Morris, II, AICP, Planning & Programs Manager of Newport News Waterworks, City of Newport News, will be the speaker. He will discuss how water can be a renewable resource and how the Peninsula will meet future needs.

No reservation needed - no charge. Space is limited and seating will be on a "first-come, first-served" basis.

UNIVERSITY RECEIVES AWARD --

On October 13, 1993, the Hampton Roads DPMA (Data Processing Management Association) president, Eileen Maeso, presented Christopher Newport University with the annual Region Instruction Recognition Award for 1993. This award recognized Christopher Newport University's newly authorized Management Information System concentration and its conformity to the DPMA model curriculum. On hand to accept the award were DPMA members, CNU professors Mayes Mathews, Kathryn McCubbin, and Jim Moore.

1. The first part of the paper is devoted to the study of the properties of the function  $f(x)$  defined by the equation

$$f(x) = \int_0^x \frac{1}{1+t^2} dt$$

It is well known that

$$f(x) = \arctan x$$

KOPS BOWL FOR KIDS' SAKE

BIG BROTHERS AND BIG SISTERS

KOPS BOWL FOR KIDS' SAKE

WHO: UNIVERSITY POLICE DEPARTMENT

WHEN: NOVEMBER 6, 1993
1:00 P.M. to 3:00 P.M.

WHERE: NEWMARKET BOWL
NEWMARKET SOUTH SHOPPING CENTER
630 79TH STREET
NEWPORT NEWS, VA.

WE NEED YOUR HELP!

*****

KOPS BOWL FOR KIDS' SAKE is a special version of Bowl for Kids' Sake, a bowling fund-raiser activity conducted by Big Brothers/Big Sisters of America to help high risk children. The agency matches carefully screened adult volunteers ("BIG" Brothers and "BIG" Sisters) with boys and girls ("Little" Brothers and "Little Sisters") from single parent families who have been referred by parents, school, and social service agencies. These young people have been identified as having problems which make them more likely to experience trouble in school, develop drug abuse problems, and/or become delinquent. Many have been abused and more than two-thirds live at or below the poverty level. There are currently 200 plus kids on the Peninsula waiting list in need of help. This event will bring teams together from law enforcement agencies of cities served Big Brothers and Big Sisters of the Peninsula, Inc.

YOU DON'T HAVE TO BE A KOP OR PRO BOWLER to participate. Everyone is invited. Whether you're a non-bowler who can't quite reach 100, a casual bowler, or a pro, your participation helps the agency. We will even help along the way, by raising all scores below 100 to 100. The idea is to get involved and get others involved. KOPS Bowl For Kids's Sake is fun and it's for a great cause...kids.

HOW DOES KOPS BOWL FOR KIDS' SAKE WORK? Glad you asked! Everyone who signs up for KOPS Bowl For Kids Sake gets a sponsor sheet. Then it's just a matter of getting sponsors. Friends, family members and local businesses can sponsor you on the bowling lanes, pledging anything from a few cents per pin on up. For example, a pledge of just five cents per pin against a bowling score of 100 equal a $5.00 contribution to the agency. Teams will consist of four persons plus one Little Brother or Little Sister who is on the waiting list. Teams will bowl one game. There will be no charge for the game and shoe rental.

WHO CAN I CONTACT? Contact Officer Dowdell or Officer Warren, CNU Police Department at 4-7053 for further information. You can also fill out the attached information slip, drop it by the police department and we'll contact you. The police department is located in room 238, second floor of the Campus Center. Please respond by October 29th.
