Foreword . . .

The Trident Staff has chosen the theme of growth and expansion for this year's annual. As the campus at Christopher Newport expands, so does its Faculty to provide instruction for the growing number of students enrolled each year. We the undergraduates at CNC share a special interest in building a Tradition worthy of guiding those who will follow us.

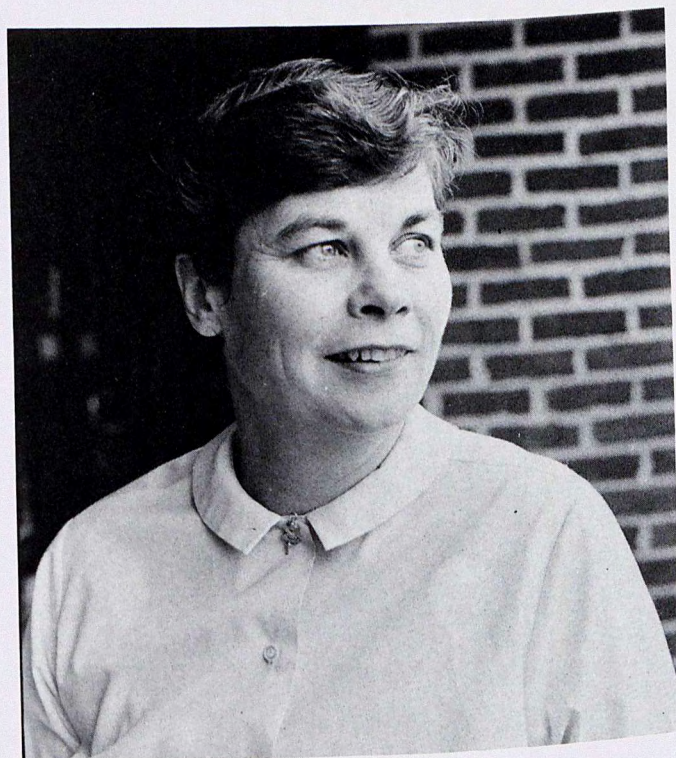

Established in 1960, Christopher Newport has already gained the reputation of providing a most demanding curriculum. A dedicated faculty strives to obtain the utmost scholarship from each student who, in turn, pursues his course of study with a desire to meet this challenge. As a result many of our graduates have gone on to distinguish themselves in the academic community. We The Trident Staff have endeavored to mirror a part of the growing tradition at Christopher Newport College.

Dedication— — —

Perhaps the greatest achievement a teacher can attain is that of winning the respect and admiration of the student. In such a noble profession it is, indeed, a rare individual who can stand out above the crowd. We students at CNC are fortunate to have such a person in Dr. Jean Pugh. She is not only keen of intellect and eager to teach, she is a friend of the student. Always willing to advise and counsel, Dr. Pugh has been a tireless instructor. We the students owe a debt of gratitude to this fine teacher. It is with this thought in mind that the Trident Staff dedicates this yearbook to Dr. Jean Pugh.

The Evening Division

The Evening Division of Christopher Newport College serves the Tidewater area in a variety of ways. Its major role is to provide continuing academic education for qualified adults on an evening schedule basis. The curriculum parallels that of the day college. Its faculty includes members of the day staff as well as many well qualified instructors from the local area. Day students find it possible to take an evening course when a schedule conflict arises.

HUBBARD AND VAUGHAN LEAD CNC ATHLETICS

Four years ago, a group of interested students, with Ted McFalls as their spokesman, petitioned the school for an intercollegiate track team. Mr. Raoul Weinstein, a math instructor, offered his services as a track coach and Christopher Newport launched its first athletic season.

Today, with the services of two outstanding coaches, James N. Hubbard (track) and Bev Vaughan (basketball), and the acquisition of a new $500,000 gymnasium the future of Christopher Newport's athletic program is on an inevitable upgrade.

Sports

Under the direction of Miss Lillian Seats, the girls at Christopher Newport have the opportunity to participate in many activities. These include: hockey, basketball, modern dance, gymnastics, bowling, volleyball, badminton, archery, and golf.

The newly formed Women's Recreation Association elected officers and initiated a point system by which girls participating in individual and team sports could earn awards and letters.

This year the hockey team competed in games with Hampton Roads Club, Gloucester High School, Warwick High School, Petersburg Club, William and Mary, and Hampton Roads Academy. There were also intramural basketball teams and a gymnastic club formed.

Student Government Association

Lynn Lindberg President

Vera Knez Vice-President

Sally Deazley Secretary

Linda Dingeldein Treasurer

The past school year began, as always with Orientation, and the Student Government participated actively by assisting the administration in introducing the incoming Freshmen to Christopher Newport. To introduce them to each other and the faculty, the Student Government also sponsored a Microphonie-Faculty Basketball Game and a dance held in the new Ratcliffe Gymnasium.

Funds were provided for the Freshman and Sophomore classes, from the money received from student dues. This fund, which provided the basis of the SGA budget, was used to sponsor the "Up With People" national singing group and the Christmas Dance held at the Chamberlain. Funds were also given to the cheerleaders, to help promote school spirit.

A main project of the SGA was the sponsorship of a child from India through the Christian Children's fund. He was sponsored with the money gained from the Talent Show of the previous year, and a second Talent Show was planned.

The Student Government, through the efforts of the students, formed a petition to the Administration and as a result, extra days were added to the Christmas vacation, to coincide with William & Mary's holiday. The SGA also played a direct part in reforming their constitution and in aiding Dean Windsor with the rewriting of the Student Handbook. Under their administration, several new clubs were formed and political candidates gave speeches on campus Founder's Day, to commemorate Captain Christopher Newport was also planned in conjunction with the efforts of Director Cunningham. In addition, the second annual beach party with Richard Bland College was planned as a final Spring function.

Undertow

Nicki Robins	Editor
Joan Meredith	Staff
Philip Weldon	Staff
Mr. Wood	Advisor
Bob Carrasco	Staff

In the past, the Undertow, the Christopher Newport College literary magazine, has been a yearly publication. This year the magazine has adopted a new publishing format. Although the organization of the magazine is the responsibility of the staff members and the advisor, any student may contribute prose or poetic material. Whenever the quantity and quality is sufficient, the magazine will be formed. When the staff members meet weekly, any student may attend and listen or participate in the critiques of the various works. The magazine, therefore, serves a dual purpose. The students have an outlet for their talent, and also, emphasis is placed on the artistic development of the individual.

The Publications Committee is composed of a chairman appointed from the assembly and the Editors in Chief of all student publications. They, along with the President of the Student Government, and a publications advisor, appointed by the Director of the college, determine policy for all student publications. Regular meetings are held monthly where problems pertaining to publications are resolved and plans for staffs and budgets are made.

The Circle K Club soared to new heights during the 1967 - 1968 term as it doubled its membership from last year's. With forty-two active members in the club, the Circle K took on such ambitious projects as sponsoring a dance in the new Ratcliffe Gymnasium to help pay for the new scoreboard-clock for the gym, sponsoring a blood drive on campus for the local Red Cross, and aiding several local charities (e.g. Daily Press Christmas Fund, WGH Penny Pitch) in obtaining funds from CNC students and also from the community.

It should be noted that the Circle K should like to take this opportunity to express its deep appreciation to this year's faculty advisor, Mr. R.M. Usry without whose help many of our accomplishments might never have been achieved.

CNC Student Nurses

The Riverside Professional School of Nursing is a three year diploma school. Students attend several classes at CNC during their Freshman year. These courses give us a basis for a liberal arts education essential to the modern nurse.

Future plans include sponsoring guest speakers and maintaining a book and magazine rack in the library.

Christian Science Club

An informal organization of Christian Scientists at Christopher Newport College holds weekly meetings, consisting of readings from the Bible and the Christian Science textbook, Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, by Mary Baker Eddy, followed by the sharing of experiences and testimonies of Christian Science healing. The purpose of this organization is to afford the college community the opportunity to learn the truth about Christian Science, to help those interested to learn more about Christian Science, and to cooperate with other religious groups on campus and with college authorities in participating in activities that promote interreligious understanding.
