Pass/Fail Courses

Over the years a few courses have been added to the curriculum of the College with the explicit proviso that they could be taken only on a pass/fail basis, and this proviso has been made part of their respective catalogue descriptions. It has been the practice of the College not to count credits earned in such courses against the six hours that seniors are permitted to elect to take on a pass/fail basis (cf., CNC Catalogue, 82-83, p.29) and not to restrict the use that can be made of credits earned in such courses solely because of their (required) pass/fail grading system. In particular, credits earned in such courses have, historically, been permitted to count toward meeting major field requirements. This practice will remain in effect until and unless a change is authorized by this office upon recommendation of the Faculty. The issue is presently before the Curriculum Committee for consideration; comments and concerns should be directed to the Committee, c/o Professor Gary Hammer, Chairman.

Budget Recisions, Impoundments and Reversions

Following are the results of an informal survey conducted by Louisiana State University on the subject of current year budget recisions, impoundments and reversions in the SREB states. This informal survey was conducted by Ms. Lynn Stewart. No formal publication will be issued and the results include a lot of estimates of future actions. My intent is not to depress you on the eve of the holiday season, but to keep you informed of what is going on in other states.
