That awful device called an FTE
Is causing the death of us, can't you see.
We fuss, we fight, we argue and dispute,
But the State says it's a concept we can't refute.
The dreadful result at our dear CNC
Seems to be as some would agree,
A stern competition, but not always prudent
For that necessary component--another student.
The FTE has made us so guarded
Our conversation and friendship seems thwarted.
I hate this division, this mistrust of others,
For my fear is, it's education that smothers.
The FTE be-hanged and be-damned!
It's cooperative effort I must re-demand.
Let's not let the FTE divide and destroy all,
For it's through united strivance for excellence we stand or we fall.
The FTE may be ever so wonderful, so great,
But dear Lord, don't let it turn us to hate!
