NEWS & GENERAL INFORMATION

Dean William Parks Memorial Colloquium

The first program in the 1980-81 Dean's Colloquia Series will be held on Wednesday, September 17. The featured speaker will be Dr. Samuel Hill, Professor of Religion at the University of Florida.

At 12:00 noon in the Campus Center Theatre Professor Hill will speak on the topic "American Religion, South and North, Yesterday and Today." This will be followed by a luncheon in Dr. Hill's honor in the Admiralty Room.

In the evening Dr. Hill will give a second presentation entitled "Southern Religion: How Much More Conservative Has It Gotten?" This 7:00 P.M. address will be followed by a reception for the faculty, students, and guests in the Campus Center.

All members of the faculty who wish to join the Committee for the luncheon at 1:00 should make their reservations with me by Friday, September 12 at the latest. The cost of the luncheon is $5 per person.
