

Chronicle

March 14, 1994

New Employee -- Welcome to Pamela Reviea, store operations manager, CNU Bookstore.

Faculty Activities -- Professor Sang O. Park was elected as the 1994-95 President of the Virginia Consortium for Asian Studies (VCAS) at its annual spring business meeting, held March 5 at Hampden-Sydney College. VCAS is an association of 18 colleges and universities in the Commonwealth, which is committed to the support and development of programs on Asian Studies at member schools. VCAS also publishes the Occasional Papers as well as Newsletters. Dr. Park served as the consortium's vice president for 1993-94.

Faculty Activities -- Dr. Nancy Barendse and Prof. Christine McAfee of the English Department presented papers at the Philological Associations of the Carolinas Conference in Charleston, SC. Their papers were presented as part of the panel, New Twists for the Old Canons: Innovative Approaches to Aristotle's Concepts of Arrangement, Style, and Delivery. Dr. Barendse's paper was titled "Sentence Combining as Rhetorical Choices: Revitalizing Arrangement at the Sentence Level." Prof. McAfee spoke on "Presentation as Delivery: A New Look at -- and for -- the Fifth Canon."

Satellite Teleconference -- Exploring the Internet 2: Back to Basics will be presented March 31 from Noon to 2 p.m. in A-105. In contrast to last semester's teleconference, this one will cover the practical applications of the Internet, providing beginning and straightforward instruction. Demonstrations of selected features for the beginning user will be emphasized. All students, faculty and staff are invited, no reservations necessary. Bring your lunch if you wish! The teleconference is sponsored by the Capt. John Smith Library, the Department of Physics & Computer Science, ITSU and the Media Center. For more information, contact Paul Pival at Ext. 4-7137 or Lynn Lambert at Ext. 4-7826.

Leadership Meeting -- The next meeting of the Captain's Leadership Society is scheduled for Tuesday, March 22 at 12:15 p.m. in CC233. The meeting has been called to elect officers, establish dues and nominate community members for membership.

Faculty Activities -- Doris Archer, assistant reference librarian, presented the paper, Library Use Patterns: Why African-American Students Don't Come at the second annual Conference of the National Association of African-American Studies, held at VSU Feb. 15 - 19.

Meetings are Tuesdays at 5:15 p.m. All faculty, staff and students are welcome for a free meeting Tuesday, March 15 in CC233. Why not stop by and see how you can get in shape for the summer? Any questions should be directed to Susan in the Office of Student Life, Ext. 4-7260.

TO: Potential applicants for Project UNITE (DRS/DOE) Higher Education Incentive Grants

FROM: Sally Scott, DRS/UNITE State Coordinator of Higher Education, (804) 662-7613

RE: Request for Proposals Application Package

Enclosed find an application package for a funding opportunity to implement or expand transition and/or retention services for youth with disabilities in your institution of higher education. A completed application will require an original and 4 copies of the following:

- 1) Completed information sheet with the signature of the individual legally authorized to contractually obligate the institution (for example, institutional grants or sponsored programs administrator at four-year institution or the president at two-year institutions)
- 2) Letters of commitment and project collaboration from:
 - a) Local Program Supervisor of the Department of Rehabilitative Services
 - b) Other cooperating agencies, employers, or organizations
- 3) Application with budget forms completed.

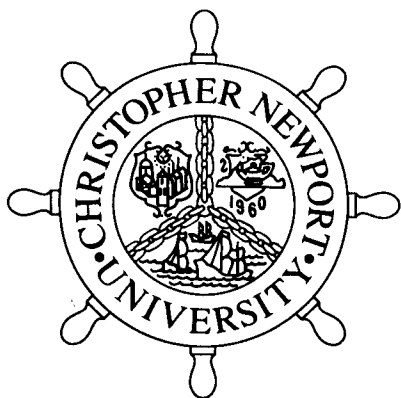

Completed applications must be received by 5:00 PM on April 22, 1994.

Successful proposals will stimulate and encourage systems change in the provision of transition and/or retention services for youth with disabilities and must reflect new activities for the institution. Funds CANNOT be used to supplant already existing services.

Examples of how funds might be used (this is not an exhaustive list) include support for:

- o the development of an institutional structure to identify and address the needs of students with disabilities;
- o establishment of programs or models to promote the successful transition into two- or four-year colleges;
- o improved linkages and communication between colleges and secondary schools, adult service agencies, etc.;
- o programs or models to promote the successful transition from college to employment or further education;
- o self-advocacy programs;
- o faculty development and education;
- o assistive technology promoting systems change.

AND SO...If the above notice has stimulated your interest and you would like to view the complete RFP, contact the grants office at 594-7266
