OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

New Personnel Requisition Form

In order to coordinate and facilitate the hiring process for those other than students, a new personnel requisition form (revised form AP-15) will be used as the authorizing document. This form replaces the departmental requisition and the old AP-15 previously used to obtain prior approval for personnel procurement. Personnel Requisition forms are available in the Personnel Office, and the Personnel Office staff will assist you in completing the form. To avoid delays and problems on your requirements, contact the Personnel Office immediately when hiring is contemplated to ensure prompt action.

Travel Expense Reimbursement

To all Faculty and Staff - We have been informed by the State Comptroller's Office that as of April 1, 1982, they will no longer accept outdated Travel Expenses Reimbursement Voucher Forms. Please check any unused forms that you may have and see if they have the following information printed in the upper left-hand corner of the form - "Form DA-02-041, Rev. 1-79" - If you have any questions, please call the Accounts Payable Office (7150). Thank you for your cooperation.

Rebecca H. Butler, Comptroller

NEWS & GENERAL INFORMATION

Dr. Donald Johanson in Dean's Colloquia Series

Dr. Donald Johanson of the Cleveland Museum and the University of California at Berkeley will present the third program in the Dean William Parks Memorial Colloquia Series on Monday, April 26, at noon in the Campus Center Theater. Dr. Johanson, author of the controversial best-seller Lucy: The Beginnings of Mankind, will give a slide lecture entitled "In Search of Man's Origins" to members of the student body, the faculty, and the general public.

Following Dr. Johanson's lecture, a luncheon will be held in his honor. All members of the faculty are invited to join the members of the Dean's Colloquia Committee for this luncheon. To make your reservations, please forward $4.00 to me by Thursday, April 22, at the latest.

Please urge your students and colleagues to attend this intellectually stimulating lecture by a world renowned authority in the field of paleo-anthropology. It should prove to be one of the highlights of this spring semester.

Jim Morris, History Department
Chairman, Dean's Colloquia Committee
Ext. 7121 or 7024
