DEANS' ANNOUNCEMENTS

Faculty Teaching Loads

Faculty members are reminded that currently they may have only one overload during a semester. An overload is considered to be the teaching of one course over and above the faculty member's regular load whether it be on-campus, off-campus or for another institution. Only under very exceptional conditions will authorization be given to exceed this limit.

Faculty members are reminded that written permission to teach for another institution must be given by the Associate Dean of Academic Affairs before the signing of a contract with the other institution.

R. J. Edwards

FACULTY NEWS

BILL WOLF (English) gave a speech at the Association of Virginia Academies meeting in Blackstone on Monday, October 4. He addressed the English section on "Preparation of Students for College," recommending that high school students need more work in writing and basic usage. A lively and constructive discussion followed, concentrating on ways of implementing Dr. Wolf's suggestions. The AVA plans to invite other CNC staff members to address them in the future.

NOTICES

The Public Information Office has begun updating its photo files. Kim Brady, A CNC student hired by the P.I. office for this particular project, is setting up appointments to take pictures of all faculty members. If she has not already contacted you, she will within the next few weeks.

I expect to begin preparing copy for the new Speakers Bureau brochure very shortly. Faculty members who have not turned in the biographical/speakers bureau questionnaires distributed to you several weeks ago are reminded to do so as soon as possible, particularly if you want to be included in the brochure.
