

CHRISTOPHER
NEWPORT
COLLEGE

Date April 8

Number 14 of 1988

THE CNC CHRONICLE

Published by the Office of the Vice President for Academic Affairs

Monday

April 11

Tuesday

April 12

Baseball-(home)-1 game-6:00 PM-Apprentice School

Wednesday

April 13

Women's Tennis(home)-3:30 PM-Salisbury State College

Men's Tennis (away)-2:00 PM-Randolph-Macon College

Thursday

April 14

Friday

April 15

Baseball-2 Games-(home)-3:00 PM-Methodist College

Women's Tennis-April 15-17 Regional Tournament at Mary Washington College

Men's Tennis-(away)-2:30 PM-Methodist College

The Importance of Being Earnest - John Gaines Theatre - 8:00 PM

Noon - Brauer Lecture - Dr. Wayne Schell - A105

Saturday

April 16

Track&Field-State Meet-Hampton U.

Baseball(home)-Noon-1 Game-

Methodist College

Men's Tennis-10:00 AM-(away)-St.Andrews Presby.Col.

Sunday

April 17

Men's Tennis (away)-2:00 PM
Lynchburg College

Official Announcements

Faculty Meeting

The Instructional Faculty will meet at 3:00 p.m., Friday, April 22, 1988, in M-125. Committee chairmen and individual faculty members who wish to have items of business considered at this meeting will need to submit the substance of such items to this office for inclusion on the agenda no later than noon, Wednesday, April 13, 1988. It would be helpful to all concerned if all committee reports to be presented at this meeting were submitted for publication by this deadline as well.

Depending upon the length of the agenda, this meeting may require two sessions. If such should be the case, the second session will be held at 3:30 p.m., Monday, April 25, 1988, in A-105.

I ask that all members of the Instructional Faculty mark these times on their calendars now so as to keep conflicts to a minimum.

-- Vice President for Academic Affairs

News and General Information

Writers' Conference and Contest

The Seventh Annual CNC Writers' Conference and Contest will be on Saturday, April 16, from 8:30 to 4 p.m. in the Campus Center.

This year's conference features five outstanding presenters:

Anne Hobson Freeman, a fiction writer and essayist - "Writing Short Fiction"

Mary Batten, an editor with the Cousteau Society in Los Angeles, "Writing Nonfiction: The Problems of Telling the Truth"

Carolyn Bell, the administrator of the Visiting Writer Program at Randolph-Macon Women's College, "The Writer and the Professional Essay"

Don Baker, a playwright, "Writing for the Theater"

Judi Tull, a self-supporting freelance writer, "Paying Attention: The Key to Writing and Selling Nonfiction"

The cost to attend this conference is $65, but there are special discount rates for faculty/staff and students. Faculty and staff pay $51. Students pay only $18. This fee includes lunch, breaks, a wine and cheese reception, and a booklet of the winning entries in the contest.

To obtain a brochure giving details on contest rules and more information on the presenters, please call the Office of Continuing Education at 599-7158.

-- Norma Brown, Continuing Education

* * * * *

Dean's Colloquia Call for Papers & Guest Speakers

This is a final reminder that all proposals for papers by CNC faculty members and nominations for outside speakers for next year's Dean's Colloquia presentations, must be in my hands by Friday, April 15, in order to be considered. Please consult the Chronicle of March 25 or April 1 for more details.

-- Jim Morris, Chairman, Dean's Colloquia Committee

Dean's Colloquia - Brauer Lecture

* * * * *

This is the final reminder that Dr. Wayne Schell will speak on "Tax Reform. Where are We Heading?" on Friday, April 15, at noon in A-105. Please attend and urge your students to do likewise.

Members of the faculty and administration who wish to join the Dean's Colloquia Committee at the luncheon in Wayne's honor should forward $5 to me by next Wednesday, April 13, at the latest.

-- Jim Morris, Chairman, Dean's Colloquia
Committee

* * * * *

CNC Theatre Spring Production

The CNC Theatre offers two tickets for the price of one for its Spring production of Oscar Wilde's The Importance of Being Earnest ($5.00). This offer is good for Friday, April 8 and Saturday, April 9. Come and enjoy one of the funniest plays ever written.

-- Bruno Kochy, Director of Theatre

* * * * *

French Students for Next Year !!!!

A few weeks ago I made an appeal for families who would be willing to host a French exchange student for one semester next year. As stated then, there is provision for hosting a kid either for some remuneration ($200-$250 per month) or as a gesture toward helping CNC establish a viable exchange program with the Institute in France.

As of this date, I have not been besieged with offers. In order to start the ball rolling, I must know before school is out whether or not we will be able to house any students coming from France. They can pay tuition and fees here, but they don't have sufficient funds to pay normal housing expenses in an apartment.

If we don't get some help with the housing, our budding exchange program with France will come to a halt, and our students will lose the opportunity to profit from this incredibly rewarding (and cheap) way of spending one or two semesters in France. Please, if you can host a student (with or without pay) for even as long as one semester, let me know ASAP, or at least by May 1.

-- Susan St. Onge, Department of Modern Languages & Classical Studies

* * * * *

Travel Reimbursement Vouchers

This is a reminder that all Travel Reimbursement Vouchers must be signed by the traveler's supervisor prior to submittal to the Business Office. Reimbursements are often delayed because the vouchers have to be returned to the appropriate supervisor for signature. Your assistance will eliminate this unnecessary delay.

-- Business Office

* * * * *

Buenas Días!

Spanish 201 and Spanish 202 will be offered at CNC in the 1988 Summer Session, although they are not listed in the Registration News.

Spanish 201 will be offered in the A Session (Monday through Thursday) from 10:30 a.m. to 12:45 p.m., in Wingfield, Room 209.

Spanish 202 will follow Spanish 201 in B Session (Monday through Thursday) from 10:30 a.m. to 12:45 p.m., in Wingfield, Room 209.

These courses constitute the second year of Spanish and they are designated as "Intermediate Spanish I and II," respectively. Generally, the six credits earned by successfully completing 201 and 202 will satisfy at least half of most foreign language requirements.

For full course descriptions, see the College Catalog, in the section entitled "Department of Modern and Classical Languages and Literatures."

-- Submitted by Chris Scheiderer

Faculty, Staff, and Student News

From March 31 through April 2, Jay Paul attended the annual meeting of Associated Writing Programs in San Francisco.

Committee Reports

CNC Faculty Senate

Elections for the Christopher Newport Faculty Senate will be held according to the following schedule:

| | |
|---------------------|---|
| Mon. Apr. 11, 3:15 | School of Social Science & Professional Studies |
| Tues. Apr. 12, 3:15 | School of Letters & Natural Science |
| Wed. Apr. 13, 3:15 | School of Business & Economics |

All elections will be held in W203. All members of the Instructional faculty are eligible to vote with their respective schools but only faculty members with full-time teaching appointments are eligible to serve as senators. Please make every effort to attend and participate in these elections.

-- Joe Healey, Chairman, FAC
