Notice from Tim Morgan:

Re: History 436,437 catalog description

The catalogue description for History 436,437, American Social-Intellectual History should read:

History 436,437. American Social-Intellectual History.
Fall, Spring. (3,3). Meet three hours per week.

The course will cover the transition from the agricultural, deferential, aristocratic, colonial American society to the industrial, urban, democratic, modern American society through an historical development of the American social structure relying also on changes in social attitudes and intellectual comment on those societal changes.
