NEWS

American Music Festival

American Music Week, November 6 through 12, has tripled in size since its first year. The participants in the fifth American Music Week will include 164 radio stations, 92 colleges, universities and conservatories, 60 professional orchestras, and 19 festivals, as well as chamber ensembles, opera companies, jazz ensembles, folk musicians, and elementary schools.

Christopher Newport College will celebrate American Music Week with its fifth American Music Festival featuring an event every day. On Monday, there will be a presentation of student scholarship in a research paper by Ellen Fisher Zehmer, "The Life and Works of Maurice Saylor." Mr. Saylor visited CNC in 1986 for its Opera Workshop's performance of his opera, Express, for the American Festival then. On Monday evening, the Arts and Communication Department will present Terry Vosbein in a senior recital of his compositions. He will be assisted by pianist Leslie Williams, the Hilton Brass, and the CNC Big Band. Tuesday features a lecture by Dr. Clyde W. Brockett "Louis Moreau Gottschalk and His Music in France" in conjunction with the Hampton Roads Festival of Arts. This topic concerns the American composer-piano virtuoso, who first exported truly American music to Europe. On Wednesday, a student recital of vocal and instrumental American music will be held. On Thursday, two American chamber operas, "The Unicorn in the Garden" by Russell Smith and "The Goose Girl" by Thomas Pasatieri, will be produced by the CNC Opera Workshop, directed by Ruth Winters with staging by Mary Matthews. These are one-act comedies promising to entertain and please, also to be presented in two area public schools. On Friday, the CNC Monthly Concert Series presents David and Ginger Hildebrand, folklorist-populist musicians who recreate America's past musical culture with their voices and traditional instruments. On Saturday, the second performance of the two chamber operas will take place. On Sunday, the Greater Metropolitan Pungo String Band will visit our stage for an extraordinary concert of American popular dance music of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries.

All of these events will be in the Anderson Auditorium, Administration Building A-105. The Monday through Wednesday events begin at noon, those on Monday night and Thursday through Saturday at 8:15 p.m. and the one on Sunday at 4 p.m. All except Friday's performance are free. For further information, call 594-7528 or 594-7074.

Instruction
Evaluation
Surveys

Consistent with the recommendation of the Faculty Senate, Instruction Evaluation Surveys (IES) will be administered this semester during the 11th and 12th weeks of classes, rather than the 13th and 14th weeks as was done prior to 1988-89. Accordingly, instructors are alerted to look for the IES materials (memorandum and labelled envelopes with proctors' instructions) to be distributed on the afternoon of Friday, November 10. Evaluations should be conducted during the weeks beginning on November 13 and November 20 (i.e., the week before Thanksgiving and the short Thanksgiving week).

When you receive the memorandum and envelopes please verify that you have all the envelopes you expected to receive. With relatively few exceptions, every class that is being taught is scheduled to be evaluated. Any questions that you have relative to your classes to be evaluated should be brought to the attention of the Assistant to the VPAA.

The heartfelt message delivered by Theolia Lewis in behalf of "Alcohol Awareness Week" may be viewed in the Media Center of Smith Library. Her talk focused on the automobile accident she suffered last spring at the hands of an intoxicated driver. The video tape was accomplished, thanks to the good services of Mr. Nick Koltun, Coordinator of Instructional Technology for the College. The tape will be on reserve in the Media Center for the remainder of the semester.
