

CNC CHRONICLE

Week of December 18, 1989

ON CAMPUS THIS WEEK

- Tuesday - Men's Basketball, at Apprentice, 7:00 PM
- Wednesday - Men's Basketball, at William & Mary, 7:30 PM

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

President's Address to Faculty President Santoro will address members of the faculty (instructional, administrative and professional) on Wednesday, January 17, at 4:00 PM, in A-105.

-- Assistant to the President

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Spring 1990 Registration In accordance with State Policy, all outstanding debts owed to the College must be paid before you will be permitted to register for the Spring 1990 semester. This includes past due tuition and fees, parking fines, library fines, returned check fees, emergency loans, etc. A hold has been placed on all student accounts which have an outstanding debt. The Registrar's Office CANNOT process your registration until all debts are paid in full in the Business Office and the hold is released by the Business Office. Please insure that you owe no debts to the College BEFORE you wait in line to register, so that you spend a minimal amount of time in the registration process.

-- Office of Comptroller

* * *

Awards in American Studies The Council for International Exchange of Scholars has announced its awards in American Studies 1990-91. These will be administered through the Fulbright Scholar Program. Awards are available in 46 countries and include openings in American Literature, Fine and Creative Arts, American History, Social Sciences and Humanities, Afro-

Have some information you'd like to share with the CNC community? Please submit your information in memo form to Webber Casey before noon on Wednesday. Need information? Call 594-7051.

American Studies, English Composition, History of American Indians, Social History, Contemporary American Literature, as well as the applicant's field of expertise. Those interested in the application process, benefits, and eligibility please contact Sanford Lopater, 118A Wingfield, 4-7108.

-- Submitted by Sanford Lopater

Criminal Justice
Grants

* * *

The Department of Criminal Justice Services of Virginia has announced the availability of funds for programs to (1) improve the juvenile justice system's capability to treat the delinquent offender and (2) develop projects designed to prevent juvenile delinquency. Training sessions for applicants will be held January 4th in Charlottesville and January 11th in Chesapeake. Deadline for applications is February 9, 1990. For additional information on priority areas eligible for funding or applications, contact the Office of Grants Development, Ext. 4-7266.

-- Julie Norman, Director, Grants Development

Final Edition of Chronicle
for 1989

* * *

This is the year's final edition of CNC Chronicle. The next Chronicle will be printed for the week of January 15. All information for that issue should be forwarded to Webber Casey by noon on Wednesday, January 10. Thank you for your cooperation, and happy holidays!

FACULTY, STAFF, STUDENT NEWS

On November 22, 1989, Carl Colonna and Jack Anderson were invited by the Oversight Committee of the Framework for the Future (Newport News City task force looking into the future of the city) to make a presentation on the current economic environment and economic development potentials for the City of Newport News. The Oversight Committee consists of the Chairman of the Planning Commission, City Manager, Director of Planning and Development, two Planning Commissioners and Chairmen of the five different task forces.