PUBLISHED BI-WEEKLY BY THE OFFICE OF THE DEAN OF STUDENTS

January 13, 1969

Vol. 2, No. 7

MEMOS FROM SGA

The members of the Student Government Association trust that everyone has had an eventful Christmas holiday and that its effects will be worn off or remedied by January 16.

Miss Evelyn Whitaker, sponsored by the Captain's Log, will reign as Miss CNC for 1969 along with her court, Miss Anda Bossieux, first runner-up and sponsored by the Trident, and Miss Delores Holton, second runner-up and sponsored by the Varsity Club.

FROM THE REGISTRAR

See Your Adviser! There are still a number of students who have not planned their schedules for second semester. This must be done before exams begin with the adviser assigned to you. No scheduling will be done during exam period.

Not Returning for Second Semester. If you are not planning to reenroll in February, please notify this office as soon as possible.

Married or Moved? If you have married or moved since September, please notify this office. You may not receive your grades unless we have this information.

Students in Arrears. Grades will not be released to any student who owes money to the College. Please be sure that your accounts are clear in the Library and the Business Office. This includes unpaid parking fines.

Registration. All students will register on Monday, February 3, from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. More detailed information will be mailed later in the month.

FRESHMAN CLASS TO SPONSOR BASKETBALL HOMECOMING

The Freshman Class will begin a new tradition at CNC this year by sponsoring a Basketball Homecoming Game on February 14 when CNC plays Randolph Macon. The highlight of the Homecoming will be the crowning of the Sportsmanship Sweetheart during halftime. Nominees for Sportsmanship Sweetheart must be fulltime students and be sponsored by a club or organization. A dance will be held in the gym following the game from 10:00 to midnight. Dress will be casual.

LIBRARY COMMITTEE

The Library Committee -- Mr. Wood, Chairman -- has met several times during December with the Library staff to assist them in solving problems which have arisen and to develop policies of operation, and will hold regular meetings hereafter. Other faculty members of this committee are: Mrs. Al-Salam, Mr. Ambrose, Mr. Atwell, Mrs. Byrn, Mr. Guthrie, Dr. Sancetta, and Mr. Wise.

DEAN WINDSOR PRESENTS PAPER

Dean Windsor presented a paper on Saturday, January 11, to The Second Annual Medical Symposium on Current Concepts in Physiology and Therapy in Phoenix, Arizona. His paper was entitled, "A Holistic Theory of Mental Illness."

STUDENTS IN TRACK MEET

Gaylon Ryan, Burt Seawell, and Greg Donner were invited to compete in the Chesterfield Jaycees' Invitational Track Meet on Saturday, January 11.

CANDY FOR SALE

Have you bought a delicious chocolate candy bar from one of the Freshman Class Officers or Assemblymen? If not, be sure to buy one today for only 50¢. Good!!!!!!

REWARD OFFERED

Upon the return of a stolen tape recorder -- TP-706 -- or information leading to its recovery, all charges are dropped and a reward will be given. Call 877-9052.

CAREER OPPORTUNITY

Mr. Hugh C. Toler, Director of Personnel and Public Relations for Leggett's Department Stores, will be on campus February 13 at 11:00 a.m., in room G-111 (Faculty Lounge). Anyone interested in a career in modern retailing should contact Mr. McMurren for details of Mr. Toler's visit.

A YOUNG PRIEST SPEAKS OUT FOR CHRISTIANITY

The Reverend Mr. John Guest, age 31, is affiliated with the Pittsburgh Experiment and has come to the United States from the Church of England. He travels across the country telling young people about Christianity "like it is." Talking about faith in a way youth can understand it, singing and playing his guitar, showing love for them -- he shares his faith with all. Singing with Chuck Hess, an American student, he has recorded an album with RCA and is known as "Jonathan" when recording.

A cordial invitation is issued to all interested students, faculty, and friends to hear the Reverend Mr. Guest on Sunday, January 26, at 3:30 p.m. in room C-110. He is being sponsored by St. Stephen's Episcopal Church.

MONOGRAM CLUB MEETING

The Monogram Club will meet Tuesday, January 14, at noon in the gym. Please plan to come to this important meeting.
