New Employee -- The Office of Career & Counseling Services (OCCS) is pleased to announce the appointment of Dr. Peggy Norwood to serve as Associate Director/Counselor. Dr. Norwood took her Ph.D and master's degree in clinical psychology from the University of Virginia. She brings a rich blend of counseling experience from both the university and community agency environment. Dr. Norwood most recently served as a therapist with the Community Services Board in Hampton. She will provide direct support to OCCS counseling and crisis intervention services and will coordinate services in other areas including sexual assault and substance abuse prevention and intervention. Please come by the OCCS in CC-16 and welcome Peggy to CNU.

Faculty Activities -- Lora Friedman, Professor of Education, is a candidate for the Newport News School Board in District 2. Lewis Nicholson, Assistant Professor of Government and Public Affairs, is serving as Campaign Treasurer. If you or any of your students wish to become actively involved in the political scene in the city, this is a good opportunity to do so. Contact Mr. Nicholson or Dr. Friedman. The election is May 3, 1994.

Faculty Activities -- Terry Crews, instructor of Dance at CNU, will be performing in the "Benefit for the Prevention of Child Abuse in Hampton Roads" at the Old Dominion University Recital Hall on April 5 and 16 at 8 p.m. The concert will showcase modern dance works choreographed and performed by professionals in the Hampton Roads area. Mrs. Crews will be presenting her collaborative choreographic work with ODU professor Melody Ward entitled "Portraits," as well as dancing a new work for the performing art company, High Frequency Wavelengths.

Promotion -- Joann Perry, Office Services Specialist, Admissions, and Julie Hunt, Personnel Analyst, Personnel/Payroll.

Board of Visitors Meeting -- Please be advised that the annual meeting of the Christopher University Board of Visitors has been changed from June 14, to Tuesday, June 7. Committees will meet in the morning, with the full Board meeting in CC-214 at 1 p.m.

Program Availability -- The grants office announces the availability of Scholarly Publications: Editions, Translations Grants. Editions grants support various stages in the preparation of authoritative and annotated editions of works and documents of value to humanities scholars and general readers. Translations grants support individual or collaborative projects to translate into English works that provide insight into the history, literature, philosophy, and artistic achievements of other cultures and that make available to scholars, students, teachers, and general readers the thought and learning of those civilizations. This program is sponsored by the National Endowment for the Humanities. A brochure is available in the grants office. Call 4-7266. Due date for submission in the current year is April 20. When responding, please refer to: Feb. 94 Grant Advisor - NEH Scholarly Publications.

Thank you -- I would like to thank all the faculty and staff who gave so generously to the 1993 Annual Fund. I would especially like to thank those people who volunteered their time and effort to ask their colleagues to join in that effort. It is heartwarming to see so many giving generously, not only of their treasure, but of themselves as well.

Dr. Anthony R. Santoro

Thank you -- Dr. Elizabeth Hansen has informed me of the faculty-staff team that gave so generously of their time and efforts to submitting applications for six of our students for the National Security Education Program. This is but one more example of the selfless work, often unsung, which all of you do day in and day out. Let me take this opportunity to thank you, not only for this but for all you do for CNU and the students which we serve.

Thank you -- May I convey my thanks to those of you who sent me cards and remembrances during my recent hospitalization and who have wished me well since I have returned. It's good to be among such nice people.

Dean's Colloquia Call for Papers and Nomination of Speaker -- The Dean's Colloquia Committee, in preparation for the 1994-95 academic year, is now calling for papers, and nominations for an outside speaker, to be presented as part of next year's program.

Members of the CNU faculty who wish to submit proposals should keep in mind the criteria used by the Committee in making its selections:

1. Scholarly in nature and the product of original research and creativity.
2. Suitable to and understandable by a general collegiate audience.
3. Similarity to or dissimilarity from recent presentations in the series.

Proposals should include a brief resume of the faculty member and a precis of the proposed lecture. Other significant materials may be attached.

The Committee is also calling for nominations for an off-campus speaker for next year's series. Again, the speaker and his/her subject should be academic in nature and suitable to a collegiate audience. Please include a brief bio. of the speaker nominated and some indication as to the subject(s) he/she may address.

In order to be considered, all proposals must be received by Jim Morris, Chairman, Dean's Colloquia Committee, by Friday, April 22, at the latest. The committee will meet the following week to make its selections for the 1994-95 academic year, and all faculty members submitting proposals will be notified of its selections soon thereafter.

Faculty members whose proposals are selected for presentation will receive an honorarium of $500.
