Dr. Robert Cummings, professor of physical education and health, published an article in the April 1995 Virginia Journal entitled, "A Summary of Four Years of Physical Fitness Testing in Virginia." Results show Virginia students continue to score lowest on the physical fitness part of the Virginia Accountability Project, a series of physical and knowledge tests that each student in Virginia must take.

Ms. Judy Mercier, adjunct instructor of English, presented a paper entitled, "Lost and Found: Postmodern Angst 'Round Here' and the Facsimile of Self with 'Mr. Jones,'" at the Popular Culture Association in the South Conference in Richmond on Oct. 5.

Dr. James Morris, history department chairman, is the author of the 2nd revised edition of America's Armed Forces: A History. The book was recently published by Prentice Hall.

Dr. Morris also acted as consultant for the Army and Navy entries in John Bowman, ed. Cambridge Dictionary of American Biography, just released.

President Anthony Santoro, delivered the welcome remarks for the Alumni Society Board of Directors meeting on Sept. 21 and the graduation address at the Hampton Roads Regional Academy of Criminal Justice on Sept. 27.

Dr. Lisa Spiller, associate professor of marketing, attended the Virginia Conference on World Trade on Oct. 4-6 in Tysons Corner. Dr. Spiller was the moderator for Rector David L. Peebles would like to invite all faculty members to a reception on Monday, Nov. 13, at 6:30 p.m. in Christopher's. If you have any questions, please call Barbara Copley at 594-7002.

Faculty/Staff Campaign For the Annual Fund

"The CNU Team-- Making a Difference!"

In the next few weeks, all faculty and staff will be contacted about pledging to the 1995-96 Annual Fund, a tangible way for you to show your support for CNU.

The goal for faculty/staff giving for '95-'96 is $55,000 to fund special programs and projects not funded by state dollars. Last year's fall campaign netted $50,258.

The annual fund drive will kick off on Thursday, Oct. 19, and continue through Nov. 30. All employees are asked to pledge during this period and to make their gifts by June 30, 1996 to be listed in the 1995-96 Honor Roll of Donors.

You will be receiving information soon about the campaign. Please participate. Every gift is important whatever the amount!
