OF ACADEMIC INTEREST

Biology Colloquium

The Biology Department invites you again to be its guest for the annual Spring Biology Colloquium. There will be a series of three lectures during April, all of them to be given at 4:00 P.M. in G145.

The series will begin this year on April 7 when Dr. Richard H. McBee, Professor Emeritus of Microbiology at Montana State University and former Dean of the College of Letters and Science at the University will deliver the annual Louis DeSpain Lecture in Microbiology. Dr. McBee's title will be: "Getting the Most for the Least: The Story of Animal Hind-Gut Fermentation."

Dr. McBee is a microbial ecologist best known for his work on anaerobic bacteria of the gut. His research, which includes studies on both domestic and wild ruminants, the willow ptarmigan, and the porcupine, was done at Montana State University and at the Rowatt Institute in the Arctic. Most recently he has been conducting studies on the gut of the iguana at the Smithsonian Institute for Tropical Research at Balboa, Panama.

Our speaker on April 21 will be Dr. C. Donald Cone of the Cell and Molecular Biology Laboratory of the Veterans Administration Hospital and Eastern Virginia Medical School. On April 28, Dr. Karl Vermeulen of the Department of Biology at the College of William and Mary will speak on the topic "Development of Tissue Culture Models of Human Urinary Infection."

Great Books Debate: Friday, April 7, 1978

On Friday, April 7, at noon in Newport 115, four distinguished members of the Faculty will debate the topic of civil disobedience. The panel, consisting of Bob Doane, John Hoaglund, Tim Morgan, and Bill Wolf, will present a variety of viewpoints on the question: Is it ever permissible for the individual to disobey the laws of the State? Each participant will deliver an introductory statement of 5 minutes after which the floor will be open for discussion. The audience is encouraged to participate and to prepare for that participation a group of readings has been placed on reserve in the Library under the heading Great Books Debate: Topic #1. You are all encouraged to attend.

NOTICES

Faculty-Staff Picnic Set for Saturday, April 15.

The Happy Hour Committee invites all faculty and staff to a family picnic on Saturday, April 15, 1978, beginning at 1:30 P.M. on the big field in back of the gym. There will be beer, soft drinks, hamburgers, hot dogs, rolls, and condiments provided by the committee. Cooking will begin about 5:00 P.M. There will be sports equipment and games for all participants. All families attending are asked to bring one covered dish casserole such as baked beans, potato salad, cole slaw, etc., or a dessert. In the event of rain or cold weather (below 60°F.), the picnic will be postponed until April 22 at the same time. Those planning to attend should let Vivian Johnson, Burnam MacLeod, Tim Morgan or George Teschner know by Monday, April 10.

Credit Union Offers $50 Prize

Your design could be worth $50! The Newport News Educators' Credit Union (NNECU) is offering $50 in shares for the winning design in its logo contest. Anyone eligible to belong to the credit union may enter. Entries should be done in black and white on an 8 1/2" x 11" sheet and sent to Corlea Plowman, Administration Building, by April 24.

The logo the credit union currently uses is the universal design for all credit unions. NNECU wants a design that will be its own and representative of its membership.

Christopher Newport College Spring Ball

The Ball is semi-formal and will be held on April 21 in the historic atmosphere of the Chamberlain Hotel, overlooking the mouth of the James River at Ft. Monroe. The evening will begin at 8:00 P.M. with cocktails served on the Sun Porch adjacent to sea wall gardens. Then dinner will be served in the Virginia Room at 9:00, and a band will play everyone's favorites - from Rag Time to Rock and Roll, mixed with the graciousness of ballroom dancing. Set-ups will be provided for those who would like to bring drinks for after dinner. Tickets are $10 per person and drinks are $1.25 at the cocktail party. Tickets may be obtained at the Campus Center front desk.

ANNUAL FUND DRIVE

Faculty & Staff

Contributions to the CNC Annual Fund Drive have been coming in far more slowly than they were last year. Since a report will be made on April 3, it is urged that all instructors and staff members arrange for their contributions to be recorded before the end of March, even if they plan to use the payroll deduction plan.

Thank you for your continuing support.
