On behalf of the President, we are creating the above-referenced committee and appointing the seven of you to its membership. Mr. Williams will serve as chairman of the committee.

The committee is charged with the responsibility of:

- (a) developing criteria (for the President's review and approval) for evaluating the effectiveness of the College's use of resources in its administrative components;
- (b) applying these criteria, in the form approved by the President, to the tasks of identifying inessential administrative functions that can be eliminated and identifying ways and means by which essential administrative functions can be rendered more efficient; and
- (c) making recommendations to the three Vice Presidents which result from the above application.

The committee hereinabove constituted is parallel in function and purpose to the existing Academic Program Review Committee appointed last spring. Therefore, academic programs are not included within the scope of the Administrative Review Committee's charge.

Mr. Williams is hereby requested to convene the committee at the earliest possible time and to arrange for the three of us to attend its first meeting.

In order that the entire college community might be alerted to the actions herein taken, we are having this memorandum reproduced in the next issue of the CNC Community Chronicle.

We appreciate very much your willingness to serve in this important advisory capacity.

Committee Vacancies

A few elections will have to be held at the first meeting of the faculty. An instructor from the A&L Division must be elected to fill the vacancy left on the FEC by the retirement of Dr. vanOrden, and a faculty member must be elected Vice Chairman of the Faculty to fill the vacancy caused by Dr. Durel's having been appointed Acting Dean of Liberal Arts, Sciences, and Education. The FAC will conduct an election to fill a vacant, at-large place on the Nominations Committee. Qualified instructors willing to be nominated to these positions should so inform the acting chairman of the Nominations Committee.
