Discussion, Actions, Decisions:

I. Summer Update

Professor Royall described the Self-Study work and planning that took place over the summer. This update to the Steering Committee included the new Steering Committee membership, workshop planning, the operations of the Self-Study office and the questionnaire completed by Dr. Lopater to be reviewed by the Steering Committee.

II. Old Business

- A. The organizational chart, calendar and prospectus for the Self-Study was discussed and approved with some minor editorial changes. These three documents will be sent to the VPAA for approval and forwarded to the College Commission of the Southern Association for their acceptance. Copies of these documents will appear in a future edition of the Chronicle.
- B. The membership of Standard Committees was discussed and suggestions were made regarding vacancies. The "working pool" of possible participants was enlarged and the director was asked to continue efforts to secure alumni and students for committee work. A list of committee participants will be published in a future edition of the Chronicle.

III. New Business

The In-House Manual was distributed to the Steering Committee. Professor Royall discussed its' content and purpose.

IV. Report from SCRAP Director

- A. Dr. Lopater distributed 10 sets of questionnaires developed for each of the standard committees. He discussed the ways the Steering Committee might use these questionnaires and the function of the Special Committee on Research, Analysis and Projection (SCRAP).

- B. The Steering Committee established the data base parameters. The data for the initial study will fall between July 1, 1979 and August, 1984. An update to include data from the 1984-85 academic term will be used by standard committees if and when the data is available.
- C. Dr. Lopater discussed the possibility of a departmental study as a part of the larger Institutional Wide Self-Study. As a result of this discussion, the Steering Committee referred the matter to the SCRAP Committee to review ways the departmental studies might interfere with the work of the Program Review Committee. A report will be forthcoming.

V. Announcements
None were offered.

Time of Adjournment: 12:15 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Mary Lu Royall
Director of Self-Study

OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

About the CNC Chronicle

As the new academic year gets under way, I want to remind all members of the College Community of the purposes and nature of this publication and to invite each of you to take advantage of its presence on our campus. The CNC Chronicle exists for two purposes: (1) to serve as a formal conduit for the communication of official announcements to the College Community; and (2) to facilitate open and dependably periodic communication within that community on matters of reasonably broad interest to it. The responsibility for organizing, editing, and publishing the Chronicle resides with the VPAA's office. Consistent with the above purposes and with the College's commitment to the free exchange of ideas, it is the practice of this office to publish in the Chronicle articles, announcements, minutes, memoranda, and other materials submitted by any College organization or by any individual member of the College Community. However, the office reserves the right to decline to publish in the Chronicle any submission which in its judgment is false, misleading, libelous, of unreasonable length, inconsistent with the above purposes, or otherwise patently inappropriate for inclusion in this College publication. (Such things can, of course, be published; but they will have to be published in some other way.) Submissions from individuals or constituencies external to the Division of Academic Affairs should be submitted through the appropriate Vice President. Only those submissions identified in the Chronicle as "official announcements" are to be construed as having the institutional sanction of Christopher Newport College. Although it will exercise reasonable care relative to the accuracy of all information published in the Chronicle, the College accepts no institutional responsibility for the accuracy of the content of any part of the Chronicle other than "official announcements." All submissions for the Chronicle are due in the VPAA's office by 4:00 pm of the Wednesday preceding the Friday on which they are to appear. Submissions must consist of the exact text intended for publication and must be presented in "Chronicle format" (heading, body, and identity of the contributor). The cooperation of the College Community in these matters is appreciated and will contribute to keeping the Chronicle an open and useful channel of communication for each of us and for our College.

If any committee chairman or individual believes that there is business which the Instructional Faculty must transact in September, I ask that he or she contact me in that regard prior to the end of the working day, Wednesday, 9/12/84.

White House Fellowships

The White House Fellowship program, beginning its nineteenth year, is designed to provide gifted and highly motivated Americans with firsthand experience in the process of governing the Nation and a sense of personal involvement in the leadership of the society.

U.S. citizens are eligible to apply during the early and formative years of their careers. There are no basic educational requirements and no special career or professional categories. Employees of the Federal Government are not eligible, with the exception of career military personnel of the Armed Services. The Commission seeks candidates of demonstrated excellence in their professional roles as well as significant breadth of interests and community involvement.

During their one year assignments in Washington, Fellows serve as special assistants to Cabinet Secretaries, or senior members of the White House staff. Additionally, Fellows participate in an extensive education program including seminars with top government officials, leading scholars, journalists and private sector leaders.

Application forms and additional information can be obtained from the President's Commission on White House Fellowships, 712 Jackson Place, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20503; (202) 395-4522. Applications must be postmarked no later than December 1, 1984.
