DEAN'S ANNOUNCEMENTS

Curriculum Development

On Monday, September 18th, Dr. Ralph J. Vernon, Professor of Industrial Engineering at Texas A&M University, will visit CNC for the purpose of discussing our proposed degree programs in the safety and health fields.

Dr. Vernon, an authority on curriculum development of Occupational Safety and Industrial Hygiene degree programs, is President-Elect of the American Academy of Industrial Hygiene. He will be on campus from 10:00 A.M. until about 2:30 P.M. A working luncheon is planned.

Faculty members interested in meeting with Dr. Vernon should so advise Dean Moore by calling 7036.

Dr. Marshall Booker and Mrs. Ralph Booth (Department of Mathematics at Hampton Roads Academy) have been nominated for the Award for Excellence in Private Enterprise Education sponsored by The Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge. Announcement of the winner will be on Washington's birthday, February 22, 1979. The nomination of Professor Booker and Mrs. Booth is for the Business and Economics Summer Institute on Free Enterprise that they devised and sponsored this past summer for twenty-five high school seniors from the Peninsula and which was conducted over a 5 1/2 week period. Approximately $13,000 to support the institute was raised by Dr. Booker and Mrs. Booth from local business enterprises.

NOTICES

CNC Gourmet Club

The CNC Gourmet Club will have its first meal on Saturday evening, September 30, beginning at 6:30 P.M. at John Harwood's (342 - 57th Street, N.N.). This group is comprised of faculty and staff who share an interest in fine food and good conversation: the cost of the meal is divided among the participants, each of whom prepares part of the meal. The pièce de résistance this time will be a Texas-style barbecue, so snail forks will not be needed.

If you would like to attend, contact John Harwood by September 22.

BUSINESS OFFICEClassified Ads

Department Chairmen are requested to provide the Business Office with a copy of all classified ads so that invoices may be matched to the ads for proper payment.

Payment is sometimes delayed because the Business Office cannot identify to which department the ad is to be charged.

It has been suggested that a "key word" be used to initiate the ad, i.e., "History Instructor-----, English Professor-----," etc.
