Dr. Douglas Gordon, professor of English, recently attended the Faculty Athletic Representative Association meeting sponsored by the NCAA in Atlanta, GA. Dr. Gordon is CNU's Faculty Athletic Representative.

Dr. Mark Reimer, director of music, is the conductor of the 1996 Newport News All-City Band and the Hampton All-City Band. The ensembles are comprised of the most outstanding high school band musicians.

Dr. Susan St. Onge, professor of French, will be decorated by the French government for outstanding service in the teaching of French language, literature and culture. Dr. St. Onge will be inducted as a member of the Ordre des Palmes Academiques in a ceremony next semester. The cultural attache from the French embassy in Washington will present the award.

St. Onge's new book, La Civilisation Francaise en Evolution, Vol. I: Institutions et Culture Avant la Ve Republique has just been published. It is the first in a two-volume series.

Thank You

UPDATE ON FACULTY/STAFF CAMPAIGN FOR THE ANNUAL FUND

A big thank you to the 135 persons who had given or pledged $40,455 as of December 11 to the 1995-96 Faculty/Staff Campaign for the Annual Fund---and another big thank you to the volunteers who are making it happen.

Don't forget to add CNU to your holiday gift list if you haven't already made your commitment. Gifts and pledges are still coming into the Development Office, and we hope to reach the $55,000 goal by 1996.

THANK YOU! TO ALL THE BOOKSTORE STAFF

Thank you for your concern and thoughtfulness during my leave for the month of October. My family and I thank you for being so understanding and generous. I truly have been blessed with such wonderful coworkers. I would like to give special thanks to Paige Maddox for going the extra mile. I greatly appreciate what you did for me. Thanks so much!!!
