Lighter Checks

The Department of Accounts will begin using early in 1983, a new payroll check and stub for salaries and wages paid. This new check and stub, made from a lighter paper than the present card stock, is being introduced to save money and provide employees on the Central Payroll System with more comprehensive information concerning their earnings. An explanatory example of the new stub will be distributed with the first new check.

NEWS & GENERAL INFORMATION

Dean's Colloquia

Dr. Jouett Powell's talk "Religions Foreign and Domestic: Can They Be Understood?" will open the Spring Semester Dean's Colloquia. Dr. Powell, Associate Professor of Philosophy at CNC, will speak at noon on Friday, February 4, in the Campus Center Theatre. Dr. Powell received a B.A. from Baylor University in 1964, a Bachelor of Divinity from Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in 1967, a Masters in Philosophy from Yale University in 1970, and a Ph.D. from Yale in 1972. He has published articles in The Downside Review and Proceedings of the Group for the Academic Study of Religions as well as given talks at regional and national meetings of the American Academy of Religion. For the past two summers, the National Endowment for the Humanities supported Dr. Powell's work: in 1981 a Summer Seminar Grant permitted him to study the history of the study of religion at the University of California, Santa Barbara; in 1982 a Summer Stipend allowed him to explore anthropologist Victor Turner's study of cross-cultural analysis of ritual.

Please plan to attend this timely presentation and urge your students to join the audience.

Interested faculty may wish to attend a luncheon in Dr. Powell's honor, in CC214 at 1:00 pm. The cost is $5. Make reservations with Jim Morris (7121) before February 2.

SEA Fundraiser

Dear Faculty and Staff,

Because of our mutual interest in Education, the members of the Student Education Association are inviting you to participate in a fundraiser for the exceptional learners' activity fund at Eastern State Hospital. The fundraiser we are presently planning is a basketball game between the Girls' Basketball Team and the Faculty and Staff. The tentative date scheduled is Tuesday, April 5th at 7:30 pm in Radcliffe gymnasium. At least one representative from each department will be necessary to make this project a success; however, we hope to see more than one. For those of you who do not wish to be a player, your participation as a cheerleader or fan in the faculty and staff rooting section will be greatly needed.

Please help to encourage educational programs for exceptional learners, such as those at Eastern State, by contributing your time and talent in this fundraiser for the children.

-- Julie P. Thomas, CNC-SEA President

Please Return by March 11, 1983 to Mr. John Jenkins - Education Department

An article, "The Role of the Office Antiphon in Tenth-Century Liturgical Drama" by Clyde Brockett has appeared in the latest issue of Musica Disciplina. Besides its identification of one heretofore unknown antiphon, this article relates the actual space involved in the presentation of early medieval liturgical drama to its music. In this Dr. Brockett adduces and converts to the advantage of music historians significant data published by archaeologists as well as luturgiologists.

COMMITTEE INFORMATION & FACULTY BUSINESSFaculty Advisory Committee

1. The text of the FAC recommendation to Dr. Summerville concerning academic reorganization of the School of Liberal Arts, Sciences and Education is printed below.

As requested, the FAC makes the following two sets of recommendations relative to the academic reorganization of the School of Liberal Arts, Sciences and Education:

- I. Academic reorganization should be deferred for a minimum of one academic year because:
 - A. The second annual reversion of state funding recently announced by Governor Robb will cause the institution to enact even more stringent fiscal restraints than those already in place and on the planning board. This does not appear to be the time to create a new administrative position.
 - B. The re-examination of the basic distribution requirements is just being initiated. A model with several schools could incorporate a more logical alignment of departments subsequent to a redefinition or re-affirmation of the present distribution.
 - C. The chairmen of the academic departments appear to be willing to operate within the same academic organization during this financial exigency. No problems with the continuation of the status quo have been articulated from those recipients of the administrative services.
 - II. In the contingency that the reorganization occurs this fall as originally planned, the following recommendations are made:
 - A. After an examination of the various criteria upon which an organizational model could be based, one overriding criterion reveals itself. The selection of the model should be based on the most logical alignment of departments when academic considerations are the foremost criterion.
 - B. The search should be local.
 - C. The selections should be made with the fullest possible participation of faculty members from the relevant school.
 - D. The evaluation of the deans should provide for the fullest possible participation of relevant faculty members in a process guaranteeing anonymity. Annual evaluations should go directly to the Vice President for Academic Affairs for subsequent review by the evaluatee.
2. At the January 21 meeting of the department chairmen and Dean Durel, the above recommendation was discussed and both sections were endorsed unanimously by all department chairmen who were present.

-- E. Daly, Chairman, FAC
