BUSINESS OFFICE

Deadline for Purchase Requisitions

The Purchasing Department would like to call to the attention of all personnel responsible for departmental buying, the following directive from the Office of the Governor.

"It has become a common practice for many agencies and institutions to request the Department of Purchases and Supply to purchase, toward the end of the fiscal year, materials, equipment and supplies that have been held back during the year in anticipation of budgetary limitations.

Quite obviously, this approach creates an unmanageable condition at the Purchasing Department, as deliveries are required by the end of the fiscal year in the majority of the cases. Due to the influx of requisitions, the Department is unable to execute the bid program in the required manner, which in turn, penalizes the Commonwealth financially.

Effective this date, all purchase requisitions to be charged to each fiscal year must be in the Department of Purchases and Supply by April 30 of the respective year. Emergencies will be considered as an exception to this date and must be approved by the director of the Department of Purchases and Supply."

Corky Greene, Purchasing Department

1978 Faculty & Staff Season Tickets

CNC Faculty & Staff members are once again this year being offered discount prices on football season ticket purchases. The Tribe these past two seasons has made football fun again for their fans. In Tommy Rozantz Cary Field crowds are seeing one of the nations finest quarterbacks, and who can help but love Melvin Martin's aggressive defensive end play.

The Indians are pursuing their third consecutive winning season, and it has been a while for a W&M team to accomplish that fete. We truly hope many of you will be able to be at Cary Field this fall to enjoy the atmosphere and action college football offers a spectator.

If you have any questions feel free to call on the Ticket Office for assistance. We look forward to being your host this fall.

Raising the Literacy Level

The following excerpt from a recent issue of the Classical Outlook should be of interest to all those who are concerned about raising the literacy level at this college. It should be noted that the Department of Classical Studies at CNC already offers such a course--Classical Civilization 100: Word Origins and Meanings:

University of Illinois Study

A course in the enlargement of students' English vocabulary through the study of Greek and Latin roots and their derivatives was evaluated at the University of Illinois. The course was developed by the Department of Classics out of concern over the national decline in the Scholastic Aptitude Test scores in verbal ability over the past several years. One component of the course makes use of computer assisted instruction as available on the PLATO IV system. A standardized vocabulary test was administered before the course began and was repeated (in another form) at its conclusion. Thus far, all students have improved--some by as much as 40 percentile points.

Reminder About Book Orders

It is time once again for faculty members to begin considering their book requests for the next academic year. Very shortly the division faculty-library coordinators will be meeting to allocate departmental library funds which will be determined by a formula which is based on the number of old and new, upper- and lower-level courses, the number of declared majors and the number of faculty members in each department. Faculty members will be notified of departmental allocations as soon as they have been determined, but in the meantime, it would be a good idea for faculty members to begin to compile their book requests which should be turned in to the Library by May 5, 1978. Book request slips will be distributed at the time that departmental allocations are made, but request slips may be picked up at any time from the Acquisitions Department of the Library.

Faculty members should also be reminded that requests for periodical subscriptions should be kept to a minimum and must be turned in to the appropriate division faculty-library coordinator so that they can be considered at a meeting of the coordinators.

Division Faculty-Library Coordinators for 1977-78 are:

Dr. Susan St. Onge - Arts and Letters
Mr. Wayne Schell - Business and Economics
Mrs. Ruth Kernodle - Social and Behavioral Sciences
Dr. John Harwood - Education and Communications
Dr. George Webb - Natural and Quantitative Sciences
