WHEN JOHNNY COMES MARCHING HOME...AGAIN!

Many parents find their adult children moving home after a divorce, job lay-off, or college graduation, and the "children" are not making an effort to move out and be independent. How can you support your adult children and still foster independence and responsibility in them?

This forum will explore positive coping skills for the parent and "child" in this institution. The discussion leader will be Grayce Crockett, a licensed clinical social worker at Peninsula Hospital.

Temporary Moratorium on Library Approval Plans

There will be a brief moratorium on the library university press approval plan. The library staff is in the process of re-evaluating the profile for the selection of materials that are sent to Smith Library. We have recently complied with new state mandates regarding the purchase of library materials on approval plans, which have prompted this moratorium and re-examination of this process. Once the profile changes have taken place, this service will resume. If you have any questions, please contact me at ext. 47130.
