TEAHOUSE

The Japanese Tea House in Virginia, a 12 minute video on the history of the Ennan Tea House and the recent construction of the tea house on our campus, is now on reserve in the Media Center for use by students, faculty and staff. The video was produced by Nick Koltun, Coordinator of Instructional Technology, and CNC senior Joan Palmer as one of many projects completed during her summer internship with CNC's Public Relations Department. The video highlights the cultural importance of the tea ceremony and includes footage of the original Ennan tea house in Kyoto.
