NEWS & GENERAL INFORMATION

Visiting Scientist Program/Virginia Academy of Science

The Virginia Academy of Science has a Visiting Scientist Program in which CNC will be participating next year. The program depends on the voluntary participation of our faculty members in visiting high schools to give talks, demonstrations, and assistance to teachers in the faculty members areas of expertise. Participants may be asked to respond to a request by visiting high schools within a 100-mile radius. No honorarium is involved, but all travel expenses will be paid by the College.

This year there were seventeen participants from CNC. Each of these participants is being contacted again regarding their possible participation this year. Other faculty are also invited to participate, whether the areas of expertise are in biological, physical or social sciences, mathematics, or some other discipline. In guiding your decision, please note that the stated purpose of the program is "to provide assistance in the teaching of biology, chemistry, earth sciences, mathematics, social science, and physics." If you are interested, please call Dennis Ridley (7392), or send your name, academic discipline, and lecture topic(s) through intra-campus mail. (If you participated last year, you will be contacted.) This information should be received by Friday, April 11, in order to make a timely response to the Virginia Academy of Science.

Review of English CAI Software

Meritt W. Stark, Jr. invited Anne Dowd, an instructor from Thomas Nelson Community College, along with Sandra Stroud and Teresa Grimm, educators from the Newport News public schools, to review the English department's collection of computer-assisted instruction (CAI) software in English and developmental studies. Ms. Dowd visited CNC's instructional resource center on Feb. 27. Ms. Stroud and Ms. Grimm came on March 12.

House Joint Resolution 32

I have reproduced below a copy of HJR32, which was adopted by both the House of Delegates and the Senate of Virginia at the 1986 session of the General Assembly. This initiative has potentially significant implications for all libraries at the public institutions of the Commonwealth; but they are perhaps most significant (not to say most ominous) for institutions, such as our own, whose libraries have not yet reached maturity with respect to either holdings or physical facilities. Interested members of the academic community are invited to communicate their interest to the Director of the Council of Higher Education and/or appropriate members of the General Assembly.

1986 SESSION

LD4068416

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 32

Offered January 15, 1986

Requesting the State Council of Higher Education to investigate the academic library facility needs in Virginia's public system of higher education.

 Patron—Ball

 Referred to Committee on Rules

WHEREAS, the collections of academic libraries reflect the teaching and research missions of the institutions of higher education and preserve the cumulative record of human wisdom and knowledge; and

WHEREAS, the continuously growing collections of print, manuscript, and multi-media materials create a constant need for additional library space; and

WHEREAS, many of the public institutions' library buildings now need additional space to house existing collections, to provide quality reader space, and to support new information technologies and modern library services; and

WHEREAS, the housing of little-used but still useful library materials in alternate locations, using compact physical storage or electronic storage, would release current library stack space to house additional heavily-used materials; and

WHEREAS, recent advances in information technologies and the development of electronic networks will affect both the organization and accessibility of collections as well as the design of the facilities required to support academic library services; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring, That the State Council of Higher Education for Virginia, with the assistance of the public institutions of higher education, identify the library services needed to support the teaching and research mission of each level of institutions; investigate the feasibility, cost, staffing requirements, and implementation process for adopting new forms of information technology that will increase access to collections, improve library services, and support the storage and preservation of valuable specialized materials; and develop a plan that promotes the effective and efficient use of library facilities through the use of advanced technological support systems to ensure full systemwide access to the library collections of Virginia's public institutions while controlling the need for future library construction.

The State Council of Higher Education shall complete its work in time to submit recommendations to the 1987 Session of the General Assembly.

March ASTD Meeting

The Southeastern Virginia Chapter of the American Society for Training and Development (ASTD) will hold its next meeting on Wednesday, March 26, at the Airport Hilton on 1500 North Military Highway in Norfolk, from 6 to 9 p.m. Dr. Bob Richards will be the guest speaker for a program entitled "Nominal Group Techniques: A Diagnostic Tool in Planning Staff Development."

Dr. Richards will explain the use of the nominal group technique as a diagnostic tool in planning staff development, and he will demonstrate the process with a participative exercise. Richards is nationally recognized for his work on this technique. He is also a professor with Virginia Polytechnic Institute/State University and President of Richards and Associates.

Advance registrations are required and can be completed by calling Ms. Dorothy Hinman at Virginia Wesleyan College (462-3232, from 9:30 to 5 p.m. and 461-8311, after 5 p.m.) or Ms. Norma Brown at Christopher Newport College (599-7158, 24 hours). All ASTD meetings are open to the public as well as to its membership.

To: Faculty
From: Rita Hubbard

Attached you will find music and words for the College Song which the Twenty-Fifth Anniversary Publications and Commemoratives Committee recommends for your approval. We consider it to be in its best form as you can see it.

This song is suitable for formal occasions like graduation. The music is elevated in tone and the words are emotional, written for students' dual feelings. (Those of us who have the CNC experience many times may forget the freshness and strength of those feelings.)

I will request that the motion to approve be taken from the table at our next faculty meeting.

A fight song will be presented for your approval at a later date.

Lyrics:

We will cherish Christopher Newport...
Morning dew, wooded path and lawn;
Bright walks, friendly faces, talk and laughter;
Pines that tower to the evening sun.

Gathered in every season, welcome at any hour,
Laboring in the light you steady for us,
We know clearer ways to venture,
Quickened by you, CNC.

Speakers Bureau Distributed

The Office of Public Relations has distributed 580 Speakers Bureau booklets to the Peninsula Community. Anyone having a list of civic organizations or names of program chairmen for any group, is invited to submit these names to the Public Relations Office. A booklet will be mailed. The office will check against its master list to be sure that there are no duplications.

Nominations for Distinguished Professor Award

The Virginia Zeta Chapter of the Alpha Chi National Honor Scholarship Society is seeking nominations for its second annual Distinguished Professor award, to be presented at the Honors Convocation Ceremony prior to graduation.

The award winner will be selected by an anonymous evaluation of the candidates' credentials according to a rating scale established by the committee which will be comprised entirely of student members of Alpha Chi. While evidence of teaching effectiveness is required, the award winner must primarily show evidence of exceptional professional and scholarly achievement, the major criteria for the award.

Please submit your nomination, a brief rationale for the nomination, and a current vita of the nominee by April 11 to the Alpha Chi Distinguished Professor Award Committee, c/o David Game, Alpha Chi Faculty Sponsor.

Attention all Golfers!

Here is the your chance to play in the $1500 Anheuser Busch Golf Classic Pro-Am. Too good to be true? Not at all! Debbie Witt and Susan Casey are selling raffle tickets for this event. The price is $5 a ticket, OR 3 for $10. If you are the lucky winner, you not only play in the Pro-Am on Wednesday, July 9, but also play a complimentary round on Tuesday, July 8, and an additional 18 holes during the week of June 30 to July 4. What's most important is that the profit received from this raffle benefits your community through the projects of the Junior League of Hampton Roads. Call Debbie (7015) or Susan (7215) to participate, or to buy tickets for this week long event that runs from July 7 to 13.

COMMITTEE INFORMATION & FACULTY BUSINESS

Minutes of the CNC Faculty Meeting of Feb. 14, 1986

The meeting was called to order at 3:30 by Dr. Summerville, the presiding officer.

I. The minutes of the December 6, 1985 and the January 17, 1986, CNC faculty meetings were approved as reported in the Chronicle (#4 of 1986, p. 4).

II. President Anderson briefed the faculty on efforts being made by members of CNC's administration and faculty to promote the best interests of the College and the community before the Virginia Legislature as it begins consideration of the Governor's budget proposal. He thanked those members of the faculty who have expressed their views to local legislators.

III. Committee Reports:

- A. Academic Status Committee - No Report
- B. Admissions Committee ----- No Report
- C. Curriculum Committee ----- No Report
- D. Degrees Committee ----- No Report
- E. Faculty Advisory Committee

Dr. Gordon for the FAC mentioned that faculty had until Feb. 26, 1986, to submit faculty development and release time grant proposals. He also noted that, although the committee had considered possible changes in final exam and outside employment policies, the committee continued to favor current policies.

- F. Nominations Committee ----- No Report

IV. Ms. Royall briefed the faculty on the current status of the institutional self-study and noted that Dr. Douglas Smith, Chairman of the SACS Visitation Committee, will visit the campus on Feb. 17 and 18, 1986, to make preparations for the SACS Visitation Committee visit April 28-May 1, 1986.

V. The faculty approved the Curriculum Committee's recommendation that Theatre 210-211 be considered a course sequence that meets the "Global View" criteria. The faculty voted to send back to the Curriculum Committee for further consideration its second recommendation that the College continue to accept PHIL 121, 122, 123 (from the community colleges) as transferring in as PHIL 101 plus lower-level electives, which would meet the Letters Degree Requirement but not one-half of the Humanities Requirement.

VI. The faculty approved the recommendation from the Subcommittee on Commemoratives and Publications of the 25th Anniversary Steering Committee that "At the helm of the future" be the College's motto. The faculty voted to table the motion to approve "We Will Cherish Christopher Newport" as the official College song.

VII. The faculty approved the recommendation from the Faculty Advisory Committee that the FAC be empowered by the Instructional Faculty to advise the president on matters regarding personnel in the event of a declaration of financial exigency during the current fiscal year.

VIII. The faculty approved the nine student petitions submitted to the Degrees Committee.

IX. Dr. Gordon announced that the Faculty Advisory Committee will communicate with the CNC Board of Visitors concerning the goals and objectives of the College. Dr. Summerville announced that Alpha Chi will be holding its Spring induction of CNC students at 3 p.m. on Feb. 16, 1986. Immediately following the induction will be a piano recital by Glen Winters.

X. The meeting adjourned at 4:20.

Respectfully submitted,

Meritt W. Stark, Jr.
