New Employees -- Aundria L. Cowles of the Registrar's Office was appointed to an hourly position in the month of October.

The following people are new classified employees.

Susan Barber	Office Services Specialist, Library
Gina Emerson	Office Services Specialist, Financial Aid Office
Barbara Lobach	Program Support Technician, Continuing Ed.
Patricia Maehr	Offices Services Asst., Newport News Tourism Development

Faculty Activities -- Drs. Christina Ramirez-Smith and Linda Morgan presented a paper titled "Changing the Architecture of the University to Support Teacher Education" at the Teachers Education Council of State Colleges and Universities fall conference in Denver, CO, held Oct.6-8.

Dr. Ramirez-Smith, assistant professor and director, internships and field placements in the Education Dept., presented a four hour workshop on Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD) Oct. 15 under the auspices of the Continuing Education Division of CNU.

Faculty Activities -- Stuart Cottrell, Education and Leisure Studies, presented findings from his dissertation research in a paper, "Predictors of Responsible Environmental Behavior Among Boaters on the Chesapeake Bay: An Exploratory Analysis," at the Oct. 13-17 National Recreation and Park Association Conference in Minneapolis, MN.

Athletic Information Line -- The CNU Dept. of Athletics now has an information line. You can obtain current athletic game schedules, cancellations, etc., anytime, day or night, by calling 594-7372.

CNU Brings College Entertainer of the Year to Campus -- One of the hottest acts on college campuses, Tom DeLuca, has been booked by Christopher Newport University's student activities programming board, ACT 1. DeLuca will perform in the Campus Center at Christopher's on Nov. 21, 8 - 9 p.m. DeLuca's performance is open to the public for a $1 cover charge. CNU students and faculty get in free.

Students in Residence Hall Entertain -- CNU students will hold a trick-or-treat night for children from Riverside Elementary School Oct. 31 from 6- 8 p.m.

Budget Advisory Committee Formed -- On Sept. 1, 1994 the Budget Advisory Committee for University Planning (BACUP) came into being. It, along with the Executive Planning Council (EPC), was developed as a successor to the Strategic Planning and Evaluation Council (SPEC). Headed by Cindi Perry, associate vice president for Institutional Effectiveness, the group is charged with advising the Executive Planning Council on matters pertaining to strategic planning. Additionally, BACUP advises the Office of Institutional Effectiveness on matters pertaining to institutional effectiveness, including operational planning, budget, evaluation and institutional research. Members of BACUP are as follows: Deans Jouett Powell, Virginia Purtle, Linda McCallister, George Webb, Wendell Barbour and Keith McLoughland, Asst. VP John Campbell, Comptroller Maribeth Trun, Director of Career and Counseling Services Doug Gallaer, Athletic Director C.J. Woollum, Dr. Peter Knipp, Dr. Jane Bailey and Student Auditor Christy Lee.

CNU Basketball -- Just a reminder ... all you need to attend CNU home basketball games is a current CNU I.D. You and your family will be admitted free of charge (excluding post-season play).

Both teams are looking forward to exciting and challenging seasons. The men's team begins its home season Tuesday, Nov. 22 against rival Virginia Wesleyan College at 7:30 p.m. The women's team also plays its first home game that same evening at 5:30 p.m. against Salisbury State University.
