

CNC CHRONICLE

Jan. 27, 1992

HOMECOMING '92 -- Time is running short and tickets are going fast for all the fun and excitement that is Homecoming '92. The event begins Friday night (Jan. 31) with an old-fashioned bonfire and pep rally, followed by a performance by Mor Thiam and Ballet Africa. Saturday's activities begin with the women's basketball game. At halftime, the SGA will announce its Professor of the Year. The men's game begins right after the women's. During halftime of the men's game, the homecoming king and queen will be crowned. At the conclusion of the game, 1964 AS THE BEATLES takes the stage in the Gaines theatre. When the Fab Four look-alikes finish there'll be a moonlight breakfast in Christopher's. Tickets are available on a first come/first serve basis at the information desk in the campus center. Get yours today!

FACULTY ACTIVITIES -- Clyde Brockett has published a review of Gunilla Iverson, ed. Tropes du Sanctus, Corpus Troporum 7, Studia Latina Stockholmensia 34, in the fall 1991 issue of The Early Drama, Art, and Music Review.

DEAN'S COLLOQUIA -- The Dean William Parks Colloquia Committee is pleased to announce its third presentation of the 1991-92 academic year. Dr. James Ness of the Psychology Department will present a lecture entitled "Where Do Memories Reside?" on Monday, Feb. 10 at noon in the John Gaines Theatre. Jim's presentation will be followed by a luncheon in his honor in the Banquet Room with members of the committee serving as hosts. Faculty, staff and administrators who wish to take part in the luncheon must forward $6.50 to Rita Hubbard by Thursday, Feb. 6. Please support this important academic series by your attendance and by urging your students to do likewise.

ROOM RESERVATIONS -- Beginning today, the scheduling office will be happy to accept your room reservations from 8 a.m. to 9 a.m. and from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Because of the requirements associated with the new computerized reservation system, the office will not be able to process walk-in or phone requests between 9 and 11 a.m. This time has been set aside for data input and will provide a much more efficient and effective system of reservations.

KING REMEMBRANCE ON TAPE -- Dr. Maxine Mimms' address to the CNC community during the Martin Luther King Jr. commemoration is available on video tape in the Media Room of the library. You may check-out the tape for viewing or bring your own tape and have a copy made.

Have some information you'd like to share with the CNC community?
Please submit your information in memo form to the Office of Public Relations before noon on Wednesday
Need information?...call 594-7039.

GRANTS NOTICE -- The National Institutes of Health have announced the availability of a Request for Applications for cooperative agreements to develop, implement and evaluate a coordinated program of community-based health behavior interventions to lower the unacceptably high rates of morbidity and mortality among minority youth. The lead NIH institute for this program will be the National Institute for Child Health and Human Development. Applications from minority individuals and women are encouraged. Projects may extend up to five years, with initial award slated for Nov. 1, 1992. Eight awards, totaling $5 million, are planned. Submission deadline is May 15, 1992. A letter of intent to apply must be received by NIH by Feb. 1, 1992. Please stop by the Grants Office and refer to the Dec. 13, 1991 NIH bulletin. (Direct contact with NIH sponsors is authorized and encouraged, but the full notice should be read prior to calling NIH.)

HOURLY EMPLOYEE -- Martha L. Farthing -- Program Support Technician -
- Purchasing.

OFFICE RELOCATION -- The Department of Nursing has moved from Trailers #1 and #2 to Smith Hall, Room 128.

BUSINESS BREAKFAST -- Dr. Carolyn Hines, president of C & W Associates and a member of the CNC Board of Visitors, will deliver an address on multicultural issues in the workplace at the next Peninsula Business Breakfast. The event begins at 7:30 a.m. Feb. 11 with a free continental breakfast, followed by the presentation at 8. For more information call Ext. 4-7158.

NEW LEAVE POLICY -- A new school assistance leave policy went into effect Jan. 1, 1992. Under this policy, classified employees may take leave to meet with a teacher or administrator of any elementary, middle or high school concerning the employees' children, step-children or children over whom the employees' have custody. Employees also may take leave to attend any school function in which those children participate. In addition, employees may take leave under this policy to perform any school-approved volunteer work to assist any public elementary, middle or high school. Any public school teacher or administrator may provide this approval. Maximum hours for classified employees may not exceed eight hours per calendar year. The paid leave granted under this policy is in addition to other paid leave (e.g. annual leave). When completing prior approval and leave activity forms, the leave code to use is "SA". Any hours requested in excess of the allotted eight hours will be charged to other available balances as follows: overtime leave, compensatory leave, annual leave or leave without pay. Leave under this policy will be forfeited if not used in the calendar year and will not be carried over into the next calendar year. In addition, employees will not be entitled to payment for this leave upon separation from state service. Employees must receive prior approval from their supervisors regarding the scheduling of this leave. A supervisor may require that the leave be taken at a different time, based on the needs of the department or office. If you have any questions about this, or any other, personnel policy, please contact the Personnel Office.

RADIO INTERVIEW GUESTS SOUGHT -- WHRV-FM 89.5, one of Hampton Roads' two public radio stations is looking for CNC faculty members to be guests on two, weekly radio interview shows. If you are interested, please call John Campbell at 4-7039.

Thinking Out Loud is a half hour program focusing on the resident and visiting scholars at area campuses and covers a broad range of issues and subjects being discussed on local campuses.

Options in Education focuses on the multitude of issues facing the education establishment today.

CAMPUS PHOTOS NEEDED -- Color photographs of students and teachers interacting in classroom and laboratory situations are still needed. Faculty who would like to participate are asked to contact John Campbell at Ext. 4-7039 as soon as possible so that times may be scheduled for a photo shoot. Your support of this project will be greatly appreciated.

Thank you for your past participation with Special Olympics fund raising. This semester we would like to do something creative and fun! Therefore, we have decided to have a craft booth at Spring Fest. We are asking each person in the College Community to donate one or more crafts to help raise money for Special Olympics. These crafts need to be turned in to Brenda Gesselman, Campus Police Office, by March 15, 1992.

Those wishing to participate, please fill out the attached form and return it to Brenda Gesselman, at your convenience.

Again, thank you for your support.

HOMECOMING '92

Hundreds of alumni, students, faculty, staff and their guests as well as the general public will gather on the campus of Christopher Newport College to celebrate Homecoming '92.

The annual program is chockful of events that will be fun and enjoyable for all who attend. Several campus offices and student organizations have come together to plan this year's festivities.

The two-day event begins Jan. 31 at 7 p.m. with an old-fashioned bonfire and pep rally. At 8 p.m., Senegalese drummer Mor Thiam and Ballet Africa take to the stage in the John W. Gaines Theatre.

The fun continues the next day (Feb. 1) when the Lady Captains take the court against Dixie Conference foe North Carolina Wesleyan. The game begins in the Ratcliffe Gym at 5:30 p.m. The men's team also hosts N.C. Wesleyan. That game begins at 7:30 p.m. Halftime activities during the women's game will include the announcement of the Student Government Association's selection for Professor of the Year. The intermission of the men's game will include the crowning of the Homecoming King and Queen.

After the men's game, 1964 As The Beatles will perform some of the Fab Four's greatest hits in the Gaines Theatre. A moonlight breakfast in Christopher's will follow for all concert-goers.

A package ticket, which provides admission for all events, is $7 for members of the CNC Alumni Society, faculty and staff. Guests and the general public may purchase a package ticket for $13. CNC students, with their college ID, will pay just $5 for the package.

Tickets for individual events, which range in price from $2 to $5 and total $9 for Alumni Society, faculty and staff, are also available. Individual event guest and general public tickets range in price from $3 to $10 and total $17.

All tickets are available on a first come/first serve basis. They may be purchased and picked up at the CNC Information Desk, located inside the Campus Center, until they are sold out.

For more information, please call the Information Desk at 594-7000.

Victorian Controversies:

A Summer Course in London, England

Are you one of the many CNC faculty or staff who would love to spend the summer in Europe but didn't think you could afford it? Well, this year you can!

From July 28 to August 10, Prof. Barry Wood will teach the 3-credit course "Victorian Controversies" (Eng. 395) in London, England. Participants will jet off to London "to investigate the tensions that informed the social and intellectual lives of 19th Century Londoners." This exploration of Victorian politics, religion, education, science and art will include tours of the British Museum, Parliament, St. Paul's Cathedral, Cambridge University and other special locations.

Additional Information

Class size is limited to 15 students.

Estimated cost is $2,000.

(Price includes tuition, round-trip airfare, room, board and ground transportation.)

$300 deposit due by Jan. 29, 1992

Interested people must contact Professor Wood, 594-7526, before 1/29/92.
