DEANS' ANNOUNCEMENTS

Funds for Faculty Development Grants

Contributions in the amount of $801 designated for faculty development were received from the last Annual Fund Drive. The Board of Visitors has allocated an additional $7,199 from unrestricted contributions for this purpose for a total of $8,000. The $7,199 represents approximately 30% of the unrestricted contributions and its allocation is indicative of the Board's strong support of the Faculty. An additional $5,000 has also been set aside in the Academic Administration budget for faculty development grants.

The fall application period for development grants has been set for September 25-October 13. No applications received after October 13 will be considered. (See Faculty Advisory Committee Report in this issue of the Chronicle).

CNC Invites Internationally Known Speaker To Campus

Dr. Edgar A. Rose, Professor of Town and Country Planning at Manchester University in Manchester, England, will speak to students, faculty, and members of the community on Wednesday, September 27, at 12:00 noon, in G145. Dr. Rose will speak on "Criteria for Provisions of Housing for the Elderly," a study for which he has received a major research grant from the Nuffield Foundation.

In addition to teaching at Manchester University, Dr. Rose heads the Department of Architecture, Planning, and Urban Studies at the University of Aston in Birmingham, England. He is also a planning officer for the City of London and an external examiner for British Universities. His private architectural practice is in Manchester, England.

Dr. Rose's current publications include British Town Planning: A Critical Profile and "Monitor and Review of the Planning Process," which he delivered to the International Symposium on Planning in Tel Aviv, Israel. He is also involved in a joint housing research project with the University of Paris.

Dr. Rose is on a lecture tour throughout the country and has appeared at the University of Illinois, University of Akron, and will visit CNC after lecturing at Princeton University.

BUSINESS OFFICE

Insurance Programs Available Through Payroll Deductions

The Office of Equal Opportunity and Employee Programs has recently conducted a study on various types of insurance currently available to employees through payroll deduction.

In view of the study that has been conducted and the plans for developing an optional package of insurance benefits, at this time, no new coverage can be offered to our employees and we cannot permit any insurance company currently doing business to expand the coverage it is now offering. Inquiries should be directed to David K. McCloud, Director of Equal Opportunity and Employee Programs, P. O. Box 654, Richmond, Virginia 23205.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Faculty Advisory Committee

Before the Faculty was officially in session and acting in your behalf, the FAC approved a student's request to waive 15 of the last 30 hours and to waive the requirement that the last 12 hours in the major be taken in residence. The Degrees Committee had previously approved the request as the student was leaving the area.

To fulfill the vacancy created on the Nominating Committee by Wayne Shell's leave of absence, the FAC nominates the following for the at-large position:

Sue Gray Al-Salam	N&Q
St. Elmo Nauman	A&L

The following members of the FAC are serving on the Board of Visitors Committee:

Student Affairs: Bob Durel
Buildings & Grounds: Marshall Booker
Development: Steve Sanderlin
Financial Affairs: Stavroula K. Gailey
Academic Affairs: Jean Pugh

We are accepting applications for Faculty Development Grants. Please submit your application to me and Dean Edwards in accordance with the procedures in the Faculty Handbook. The deadline for submission is Friday, October 13, 1978.

Jean Pugh, Chairman
