OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Myths, Models, and Realities: Creating a Campus of the Future
(a video conference)

Interested members of the campus community are invited to attend a video conference entitled "Myths, Models, and Realities: Creating a Campus of the Future" on February 7 in Al05 from 11:15 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. This program deals with the strategic application of information age technology on various campuses across the country. Come for all or part of the program as you wish. Admission is free. For more information, contact Ms. Joanne Landis, 47267.

-- Dr. Therese Bushner, Assistant to the President

NEWS AND GENERAL INFORMATION

Peninsula Hospital Lunch Chat Series

Free! Must pre-register to attend, however. This program will fill early. Call 47158 now to register.

Time: Noon to 1 p.m., March 21 Location: CNC Campus Center
Cost: Free Banquet Room

Cost: Free -- Lunch will be provided by Peninsula Hospital.

When You Love Your Teen Enough to Say No

Loving your teenagers does not mean giving them everything and asking nothing. Love also involves discipline and limit setting by parents.

In this seminar, you'll learn ways to set positive limits for your teenagers, limits that will help them grow into mature and responsible adults.

Lesia Yawn, Ed.D., Peninsula Hospital, will be the discussion leader.

The 1989 Summer Seminars for College Teachers

The National Endowment for the Humanities offers this opportunity for advanced study or research.

Selected teachers will participate in six- or eight-week seminars in an area of mutual interest under the direction of a distinguished scholar. Participants will also undertake an individual research project or program of intensive reading. Stipends are $2,750-$3,500. Application deadline is March 1, 1989. For further information on seminar topics or how to apply, call ext. 4-7266.

Personnel Notice

The Commonwealth of Virginia values its employees and recognizes the importance of their well-being. The State Employee Assistance Service (SEAS) is a confidential counseling, assessment, and referral service developed to help state employees cope with many kinds of problems. It is a management resource that may assist supervisors to address employee job performance that has been adversely affected by personal problems.

In an effort to make this valuable referral and counseling service available to state employees in the Tidewater area, a new office has been opened in Norfolk.

The SEAS office that has been designated to serve CNC employees is:

Tidewater Office
861 Glenrock Road
Circle East Building
Suite 224
Norfolk, VA 23502
