NEWS & GENERAL INFORMATION

President's Notes

On October 16, 1980, Ms. Susan Walthall became the first full-time Coordinator of Women's Athletics in the history of CNC.

It is fitting that advantages of self discipline, regulated competitive assertiveness, and the pride associated with representing the institution as a whole be extended formally and on a sustained basis to women through this subvention. The concept of mens sana in corpore sano is an ideal striven for by all CNC student athletes.

We welcome Ms. Walthall to our growing institution.

In a project entitled Private Sector Youth Employment Survey Professors Vinod Maniyar and Bob Durel have produced an effort which reflects great credit on CNC. This project is of especial merit because it exemplifies that union of utility and excellence which is the heart of the liberal arts tradition and the future of CNC. This program was funded by The Governor's Employment and Training Council.

Dean's Colloquia

On Wednesday, November 19, the Dean's Colloquia Series will present Professor Alvin L. Bertrand speaking on the topic "The Swift Transition of the South from a Rural to an Urban Region." This address will take place at noon in the Campus Center Theatre. Dr. Bertrand is Boyd Professor Emeritus of Sociology at Louisiana State University. All faculty and students are cordially invited and urged to attend.

At 2:00 in the Board Room, Dr. Bertrand will hold an open seminar on his topic and on the South in general. Again, all faculty and students are cordially invited.

At 1:00 we will hold our usual luncheon in the speaker's honor. Those faculty wishing to attend should forward $5 to Jim Morris of the History Department by Monday, November 17, at the latest.

Thank you.

James M. Morris

Audio Visual Equipment

The Faculty is reminded that delivery of audio visual equipment to the classrooms requires two days prior notice. Such notice allows the Media Department to maximize the utilization of its small staff and to optimize usage of its complement of equipment. In a situation where two days prior notice is not given, the Media Department will attempt to meet said unusual needs but will not be able to guarantee that staff or equipment will be readily available. Portable equipment such as cassette recorders and slide projectors can be picked up at the Media Department.

Director for Technical Service &
Media

Second Reminder About Fall Book Order and the Special Monies for Retrospective Collection Development

For those departments which have been notified that they have unencumbered library book money we should again like to point out that the deadline for submitting book requests is December 3rd. As for the Retrospective Collection Development Project it will conclude next week, i.e., on November 21st--submissions reaching the Acquisitions Department after that date will not be honored.
