Stolen Item From Bulletin Board

On Sunday, March 6, 1988, sometime between 8:20 p.m. and 9:45 p.m., some unknown person(s) stole the cutout figure (dressed as a burglar in dark cloth and crawling through a window) from the crime prevention bulletin board outside of the Campus Police office on the second floor of the Campus Center.

Campus Police is offering a $100.00 reward (from personal funds not College funds) for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person(s) responsible for the theft or a $25.00 reward for the return of the figure, with no questions asked.

Committee Reports

Announcements from the 4 March Faculty Meeting

The announcements below are printed here for your information since they require action before the normal time of publication of the full minutes of the 4 March Faculty Meeting.

1. Ten copies of the report "Teacher Education Programs at CNC: A Plan for Restructuring Programs" are on reserve at the library. The Curriculum Committee would appreciate it if all interested faculty would read this report and send comments to the Committee ASAP. The Committee is currently working on its comments/recommendations which will be published in the CNC Chronicle prior to the April meeting of the Faculty.
2. The International Studies Committee will be surveying the faculty about the International Studies Program within the next two weeks. If you have any suggestions about questions that should be asked on this survey, please contact Dean Maris. Also, when the survey arrives, PLEASE fill it out and return it.

-- Richard W. Cheney, Jr., Faculty Secretary
