News and General Information

Dean's Colloquia-Brauer Lecture Scheduled

The Dean's Colloquia Committee and the Harrol A. Brauer, Jr. Professor of Business Committee are pleased to announce that the 1986-87 Brauer Lecture will be given on Wednesday, February 11, at noon in the Anderson Lecture Hall in the Administration Building.

Delivering the annual lecture will be Dr. James M. Morris, Professor of History and Brauer Professor of Business for this academic year, who will address the question of the moral defense of capitalism in the late 20th century.

As usual with the Dean's Colloquia Series, a luncheon in the speaker's honor will be held in the Campus Center following his presentation. Faculty members wishing to attend should forward $5 to me by Tuesday, February 10, at the latest.

Please encourage your students to attend this annual Brauer Lecture.

-- H. Marshall Booker, Department of Economics
Vice Chairman, Dean's Colloquia Committee

TO: All CNC Departments

All business with the Cashier's Office should be conducted between 8:30 A.M. and 4:30 P.M. This does include such transactions as cashing checks and making change. The cashier needs the time between 8:00 and 8:30 A.M. and 4:30 and 5:00 P.M. to close out and balance all registers. This work cannot be accomplished in a timely manner with ongoing interruptions. Only individuals authorized to enter the cashier cage should use the back door. All others should do business over the counter. An in-box has been placed on the inside of the right cashier's window for your convenience.

Please make your plans in accordance with these procedures. Thank you for your cooperation.

Faculty, Staff, and Student News

Douglas Gallaer, Office of Career Planning and Placement, was recently named 1986 Counselor of the Year by the Peninsula Counselors Association (PCA). Doug was presented this award in December during a PCA luncheon program in Williamsburg. Doug also recently coordinated the judging of the Peninsula-wide Career Poster Contest. Glen Vought, Office of Student Development, and Debbie McHugh, Career Planning and Placement, assisted in the effort by serving as judges.

Committee Reports

Minutes of Faculty Meeting of December 12, 1986

- I. The minutes of the meeting of November 14, 1986 were approved.
 - II. Committee Reports:
 - A. Academic Status Committee--No Report.
 - B. Admissions Committee--No Report.
 - C. Curriculum Committee--See IV, V, and VI.
 - D. Degrees Committee--See III.
 - E. Faculty Advisory Committee--Handouts regarding nominations for Outstanding Commonwealth Faculty Awards were disseminated. Nominations and applications should be submitted by January 20, since the FAC will review them February 5, 1987.
 - F. Nominations Committee--No Reports.
 - III. The list of candidates for graduation in January 1987, as indicated in The Chronicle of December 5, was approved subject to their successful completion of all degree requirements.
 - IV. The recommendation of the Curriculum Committee that the courses outlined in The Chronicle of December 5, 1986 be added to the College curriculum was approved.
 - V. The recommendation of the Curriculum Committee that English 207-208 be designated "global" and renumbered 207G-208G was approved.
 - VI. The recommendation of the Curriculum Committee that the distribution requirements of the College be changed as outlined in The Chronicle of December 5 was approved.
 - VII. Dr. Summerville updated the faculty on the status of the SCHEV faculty salary benchmark system. Faculty were advised that if the Council of Higher Education and the legislature approve the current proposal, CNC faculty will witness an increase in the average salary from $31,003 (current average salary) to $35,883 (benchmark salary for 1987-88). Dr. Summerville explained that the increases would most likely be implemented over a three-year period, with yearly salary hikes of 9.22 percent.
- Dr. Summerville also advised the faculty that when he is apprised of the dollars CNC will receive for incremental increases, he will divide the money among the three schools. He has asked the deans to recommend how the money will be dispersed within each school. Whatever method of selection is used should be consistent with school policy and relevant to the College's standards--teaching, service, and professional development.

VIII. Announcements:

- A. Dr. Hubbard announced that 25th Anniversary commemorative plates are still on sale.
- B. Mr. McLoughland announced that the fifth presidential candidate will be visiting the campus December 15. After the open session on Monday and after the faculty meeting today, members of the Presidential Search Committee will be available to hear responses to the candidates.

IX. The meeting was adjourned at 3:35 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Madeline Smith
