OMICRON DELTA KAPPA SOCIETY, INC.

Awards Charter to Christopher Newport University

After three years of fundraising and hard campaigning the national leadership honor society, Omicron Delta Kappa will open a new circle on the CNU campus later this month. Faculty advisor and professor of English Dr. Doug Gordon said, "There is no other national honor society other than Phi Beta Kappa that is so highly recognized in American colleges and universities. It also gives high distinction to the students of our university by a national honor society."

The national leadership honor society, founded on December 3, 1914 at Washington & Lee University in Lexington, Virginia, will present a formal charter to Christopher Newport University in the Campus Center, Room 150 on Friday, March 29 at 7 p.m.

Twenty charter members, including members from CNU's faculty and staff: government and public

SACS Team Plans Visit to CNU

The Southern Association of Colleges & Schools (SACS) will be on campus April 22 - April 24. Interviews with the faculty and staff will be conducted April 23 & 24. Since the majority of interviews will not be scheduled in advance, it is vital that you keep your calendars as clear as possible. Availability of faculty and staff is critical to the success of the visit.

A Self Study Report will be distributed to the SACS team in advance of their visit, and they may refer to it in their discussions. Each department will receive one copy of the report this week. Please review comments pertaining to your department in advance of the SACS visit.

Kudos to the CNU Captains!

Christopher Newport University's Men's Basketball Team will take on their ninth NCAA tournament appearance this week. We wish the Captains best of luck and congratulate the Lady Captains on a fine season as well. They finished with a record of 16-10 as the Dixie regular-season champion and tournament runner up!

CNU Hosts Open House

Christopher Newport University will hold two Open Houses during the spring semester for prospective students and their families. The programs will be held from 9 a.m. - 2 p.m. with opportunities for students to attend discussions led by academic departments, take a guided campus tour, and attend sessions on financial aid, residential living, and student activities.

Mark your calendars for Saturday, March 16 and Saturday, April 20. For more information, contact Cindy Lackey in the Office of Admissions at 594-7015 or via E-mail at clackey@cnu.edu.

NOTICE TO READERS OF THE CHRONICLE

The Office of University Relations is in the process of revising the Chronicle. The faculty/staff newsletter will be renamed in April and we will begin publishing on a monthly basis. Please continue to send all submissions to: Michelle Carpenter, University Relations.
