

CHRONICLE

April 15, 1994

Faculty Activities -- Cheryl Mathews, Director of Social Work, was recently elected to a two year term as President of the Virginia Social Work Education Consortium (VSWEC). Cheryl was an organizing member of VSWEC in 1986, has served as the group's Secretary/Treasurer and was honored by the consortium with the 1991 "Outstanding Social Work Educator Award".

Faculty Activities -- Dr. Yvonne Stringfield, from the Department of Nursing, has written a third book review for and published by Nursing and Health Care, the official publication of the National League for Nursing. The book she reviewed was Introduction to Critical Care Nursing. Dr. Stringfield also presented a paper entitled, "The African American Experience in Health Care" at the 2nd annual National Association of African American Studies Conference at Virginia State University on February 16. This paper will appear in the conference proceedings manual.

Faculty Activities -- Jim Hines read his paper "Discovering Charles Gilfert" at the 1994 Annual Meeting of the Mid-Atlantic Chapter of the College Music Society in Greensboro, North Carolina, on Saturday, March 25. Jim has been named Conference Manager of the Sonneck Society for American Music, a newly created position, by the Board of Directors of the Society for an initial three-year term. He will have overall responsibility for the annual conferences of the South.

Faculty Activities -- The Eastern Regional Spring Conference for Women Administrators in Higher Education was held on April 7 and 8 at John Tyler Community College. The subject of this year's session was "Backlash: Meeting the Challenge". Keynote speakers were Gordon Davies, Executive Director for SCHEV, and Dr. Linda McCallister, Dean of the College of Business and Economics. Patricia Harvey, Assistant to the Provost, delivered a case study in coping with backlash for the afternoon session. The conference was sponsored by the Virginia Identification Program for Women (VIP) and the American Council for Education (ACE). Those interested in hearing more about the conference should contact CNU's VIP coordinator, Patricia Harvey, at 594-7933.

Law Enforcement Torch Run for Special Olympics -- T-shirts and hats are available for $10.00 each. Donations are also being accepted by Sgt. Gesselman at 4-7053 or at home (804) 865-6781.

!! NOTICE TO ALL !! CNU FACULTY, STAFF AND STUDENTS

Due to the recent unauthorized use of Ratcliffe Gymnasium by some individuals, the following changes will take effect Wednesday March 30th. These changes are being made in order to protect the people who are able to use this facility. Please pass the word that Ratcliffe Gymnasium is OPEN ONLY TO CNU FACULTY, STAFF AND STUDENTS WITH A VALID AND CURRENT CNU ID. This program is being implemented after a survey of other state colleges and universities.

Effective Wednesday March 30th, --- after 6:00 PM, --- all individuals that use the facilities in Ratcliffe Gymnasium must present a CNU ID CARD WITH A CURRENT SPRING 1994 STICKER upon entering. Please use the front door that leads into the hallway where the classrooms are located. When an individual has completed their workout, their ID card will be returned as they leave the facility. There will be no exceptions to this rule for either faculty, staff or students.

From 8:00 AM - 5:00 PM, any individual may be asked to produce a CNU ID to verify his or her status. AT NO TIME should anyone be utilizing Ratcliffe Gymnasium without a proper CNU ID.

Every day, Monday - Friday, the facility will be closed at 5:00 PM to prepare for the evening session and all individuals will be asked to leave Ratcliffe. The facility will reopen at 6:00 PM for activity until 10:00 PM -- Monday thru Thursday -- and until 9:00 PM on Friday. Please arrange your workouts according to this schedule.

 The one exception to this rule will be students attending night classes in Ratcliffe -- instructor verification might be necessary.
