

The Chronicle

*Published monthly for the Faculty and Staff of Christopher Newport University
January 1996/Volume III/Number 8*

The name, The Chronicle, creates confusion with other publications, so the Office of University Relations has decided to solicit input from the CNU community in order to rename this in-house newsletter and better reflect the spirit of CNU. Please submit any ideas you have for the name change by February 1, 1996 to Kathy Edwards, Office of University Relations. Thank you for your assistance.

President Tribble Appoints Enrollment Management Task Force

President Paul Tribble has appointed an Enrollment Management Task Force, chaired by Dean of Students Dr. Robert Spicer. The Task Force has been charged with reviewing all elements on campus that affect the retention of students and will then recommend a course of action.

The task force consists of: Phyllis T. Bagley, University Registrar; Drumont Bowman, Director of Admissions; William Brauer, Executive Vice President; Evan Davies, Director of Institutional Research; Sidney Dugas, Director of Financial Aid; Katherine Edwards, Assistant to the President for University Relations; Douglas Gallae, Director of Career and Counseling Services; Sheila Greenlee, Associate Professor of Psychology; Marie Hawley, Director of Student Life; Cynthia Perry, Chief of Staff and Assistant to the President for Planning & Budget; and Jouett Powell, Provost.

Please give your cooperation and support to the Task Force as they embark on this very important endeavor.

Please send all information for The Chronicle to the Office of University Relations
by the first and third week of every month.

FACULTY/STAFF ACTIVITIES

Dr. Marshall Booker, professor of economics and finance and director of CNU's Bureau of Economic Research, spoke to the Peninsula Ad Club on January 3. Dr. Booker delivered his annual economic forecast.

Dr. Christina Ramirez-Smith, assistant professor of education and leisure studies, was featured recently on WAVY TV-10 on "Ways to Work with Attention Deficit Hyperactive Children." Dr. Ramirez-Smith also presented the paper "Leadership in a Changing Environment" at the Quality of Life Marketing Conference in Williamsburg last month.

Dr. Michelle Vachris, assistant professor of economics and finance, traveled to Moscow December 11-22 to advise the Russian Federation on the development of export and import price indices. Dr. Vachris previously worked at the Bureau of Labor Statistics producing such indices for the U.S. The mission to Moscow was part of the technical assistance program of the International Monetary Fund.
