Spring 1990 Registration New Procedure In accordance with State Policy, all outstanding debts owed to the College must be paid before you will be permitted to register for the Spring 1990 semester. This includes past due tuition and fees, parking fines, library fines, returned check fees, emergency loans, etc. A hold has been placed on all student accounts which have an outstanding debt. The Registrar's Office CANNOT process your registration until all debts are paid in full in the Business Office and the hold is released by the Business Office. Please insure that you owe no debts to the College BEFORE you wait in line to register, so that you spend a minimal amount of time in the registration process.

theatrical lighting equipment used in the theatre. The workshop on the 14th will be titled "Scenic Design for the Stage" and will concentrate on basic stage design principles, space and atmosphere on the stage, and the use of color for a scenic designer. Both workshops will begin at 7:30 pm and are being presented free of charge.

Both workshops are geared towards beginner or intermediate skill levels, and will help everyone who attends better understand the usage and principles of stage lighting and scenic design.

Bounty
Donation

The Hunger Task Force at CNC wishes to thank students, staff, faculty, and administrators at Christopher Newport and their friends who made our Thanksgiving Food Drive a tremendous success. Your generosity literally overwhelmed us and enabled us to do far more than we ever thought possible. You helped us give a turkey, a ham, and all the trimmings to 39 Newport News families. We received from you $611.97 cents, and after purchasing turkeys and hams, we donated $40.26 to Hampton Ecumenical Lodgings and Provisions.

Special thanks go to two particular groups. Alpha Kappa Psi gave us a check for $150 which we turned over to the Salvation Army to help with their program of providing Thanksgiving dinners to needy persons. In addition, the brothers of the pledge class of Sigma Tau Gamma gave us their time and energy just before a busy holiday to deliver the food to designated families.

A list of participants follows: Administration Building, third floor; Admissions Office, Alpha Kappa Psi, American Marketing Association, an anonymous family, Athletic Department, Baptist Student Union, Bookstore, Business Office, Campus Center Office, Career Planning and Placement, Michelle Davis, English Department, Financial Aid Office, International Student Association, Library, Military Science, Minority Student Association, Dave Murray, National Association of Accountants, Student Society; New Life Class, Northside Church of Christ; Nursing Department, Office of the President, Office of the Registrar, Office of Student Development, Office of Student Life, Office of the Vice President for Financial Affairs, Office of the Vice President for Institutional Advancement, Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs, Parking and Information Desk, Jay Paul, Personnel, Physics and Computer Science Department, Jouett Powell, Professor Ronnie Cohen's Business Law classes, Professor Katherine Rahman's Political Science 104G classes, Sigma Tau Delta, Sigma Tau Gamma, Student Virginia Education Association, Terrace staff, Wanda Wyatt, and Yvonne Wynn. As you can see, this was a College-wide effort which made a difference on the Peninsula. Thanks to all who made it a success.

Basketball
Passes

ATTENTION! ATTENTION! ATTENTION!

This is your final reminder to come by the Department of Athletics, R-104, to pick up your 1989-90 CNC MEN'S & WOMEN'S BASKETBALL PASS. Of course the passes will be available all season, but this will be the last reminder in the Chronicle.

We really appreciate the support of the faculty and staff members who have been by already and who have been attending our games. The attendance records at games this year have been up, which always make the games more exciting.

Both teams have started off very well. As of Nov. 30, the men were 3-1 with a win against a NAIA school, and the women were 3-2 with a win against a Division II school.

So, come on by to get your pass and join us for some good basketball.

C. J. Woollum, Director of Athletics

FACULTY, STAFF, STUDENT NEWS

During the month of October, David Balthrop, Assistant Professor of Theatre, with the help of the following students; Lissa Graham, Paul FitzGerald, Shawncy Ford, Kitty Randall, Mary Pat Telstead, Myra Vasques, Brett McMichael, and Lynn Matejka painted 21 billboard style advertisements for New Market North Mall in Newport News. The artwork was designed by Professor Balthrop, and each piece represented a locale being utilized by the Mall as a prize in a promotional venture.

The Virginia Association of Teaching Educators (VATE) appointed Al Millar to serve on a committee with professors and teachers from around the state to select the outstanding language arts teacher in Virginia. The Foster B. Gresham Award was presented recently in Richmond to Elizabeth K. Byrd, an elementary teacher at Burbank school in Hampton. Also, Al Millar addressed the Baptist Student Union at CNC last month on the topic, "Christianity and Science Fiction."
