Spring
Production

The CNC Theatre opens its spring production of The Prime of Miss Jean Brodie by Jap Allen (from the novel by Muriel Spark) on Friday, April 13, in the John W. Gaines Theatre. Curtain time is 8:00 p.m. Additional performances are scheduled for Saturday, April 14, Friday, April 20 and Saturday, April 21.

The play revolves around Jean Brodie, a vibrant and eccentric spinster-schoolmarm who blows gusts of fresh air into the stuffy atmosphere of a conservative finishing school for girls. Her influence on her "gels" (the play takes place in the early thirties in Edinburgh, Scotland) is lasting and profound though not necessarily always benign.

Faculty and staff enjoy a special discount for Friday, April 13 and Saturday, April 14. Two tickets may be purchased for the price of one ($5.00). Be sure to take advantage of this special offer to see one of the most intriguing figures in twentieth-century theatre.

For information and reservations, call 594-7089.

Feature
Stories

The Daily Press and small weekly newspapers are always looking for feature stories. Do you have an interesting hobby or involved in a special community project or service that could be used as a "hometown" feature story, and at the same time gain publicity for the college? Do you have any info that could be "news worthy"; if so, contact the Office of Public Relations at 4-7039.
